

James Goetz, Hurt in Fatal Collision, Reported on Mend

An improvement in the condition of James Goetz, 19, of 989 Cherry street, Winnetka, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident in which another youth and a girl were killed last week, was reported late Tuesday afternoon. Goetz is in the Evanston hospital.

The accident, which resulted in the deaths of Myrtle Holloway, 14 years old, 330 Oxford road, Kenilworth, and of John Edson McEldowney, 19, of 620 Abbotsford road, Kenilworth, occurred early Tuesday morning of last week at the Winnetka avenue crossing of the Chicago and North Western railway in Winnetka. The car in which Miss Holloway and young McEldowney were riding with the Goetz boy was struck by a northbound express and milk train. The inquest into the accident was postponed until Wednesday, April 24, at the Winnetka Village hall pending the recovery of the injured youth.

Miss Holloway, a former student at New Trier High school who transferred to the Frances Shimer school, Mt. Carroll, Ill., at the beginning of this semester, is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Holloway, and a sister, Helen. The funeral services were held last Thursday afternoon at the Church of the Holy Comforter, Kenilworth.

McEldowney, who was a junior at New Trier, is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McEldowney, and three sisters, one of whom, Mrs. John G. Wittbold, lives in Winnetka. The services were held last Thursday morning in the Graceland cemetery chapel.

The Goetz boy is a senior at the high school.

"Is Piety a Lost Art?" Congregation Sermon

"Is Piety a Lost Art?" will be the subject of the sermon given Sunday morning, April 14, at 11 o'clock by Rabbi Charles E. Shulman at North Shore Congregation Israel temple in Glencoe. The sermon, Rabbi Shulman points out, will be an inquiry into the status of personal religion.

Music at the services this Sunday will be as follows:

Ma Tov	Thatcher
Borchu	Thatcher
Shema	Thatcher
Michomocho	Traditional
Tzur Yisroel	Landsman
Kedusha	Idelsohn
May the Words	Rogers
Anthem—"Glorious Forever"	Rachmaninof
Solo—"Eternal" (Ewig)	Wolff
Miss Lucille Long
Va'Anachnu	Binder
Largo	Perlman
Eloheinu	Stark

COMBINES BEAUTY, HEALTH

Edyth Diedrich, famed exponent of the Janus method of reducing and body beautifying, now located in her new "Janus Salon" at the North Shore School of Physical Development, 1700 Central street, Evanston, is in the unique position of conducting the only institution on the entire north shore to combine beauty and health features under one roof. More than two hundred north shore women attended the opening reception, style show and tea held last Friday at the new location.

BAHA'I LECTURE

"Paradise Regained" is the subject of the talk to be given at the regular Sunday afternoon service held at 3:30 o'clock, April 14, in Foundation hall, Baha'i Universal House of Worship on Linden avenue and Sheridan road, Wilmette. The speaker will be Albert Windust of Chicago.

The Smarter Fashions for Older Sisters

A tailored coat, expertly fitted and finished as nicely as a grown-up's with a gay cherry boutonniere on the lapel. Navy wool colete and Flemish blue or oakwood brown tweed. Sizes 7 to 16$18.75

The younger girl will love this smart new suit of Marita cloth with tuck-in skirt. The tailored jacket is unlined and the blouse is made of dotted tie silk. Navy with red or copen, brown with aqua.

$11.75

Youthful Smartness goes to the Easter Parade

AT FIELD'S EVANSTON STORE

Boys Will Like These Man Style Clothes

Our collection of knicker suits is at its Spring peak — single and double breasted models, shirred backs . . . the smart Spring colors are tans, grays and browns and the patterns include many checks. 8 to 16$13.50

Camel's hair, tweeds and cheviots present some of the newer patterns for Easter. Raglan sleeved models with belts all-around—others have set-in sleeves and half belts. Browns, tans and grays, sizes 5 to 10$6.95 and up

Brother and Sister Suits

This unusual dress is fashioned of swiss gingham with baby rick-rack to trim the collar and short sleeves (in sizes 2 to 6). The boys' suits to match are of linen and swiss gingham trimmed the same, and come in sizes 2, 3, 4. Brown, blue or red, each $1.95

White linen makes its bow — the dress is trimmed with braid and covered buttons which run from collar to hem. The suit matches sister's — both have notched collar and short sleeves. Dresses, 2 to 6; suits 2 to 4, each$1.95

On the Second Floor

The Evanston Store • Church and Sherman

MARSHALL FIELD & COMPANY