Need Replacements for Last Year's Champions

Tryouts for places on the New Trier High school golf team will be held next week, H. B. Aram, the coach, announces. The first Suburban league match is with Proviso at New Trier on Friday, May 3.

Three veterans of last year's championship team are back in school, Tom Gallagher, who is captain of the team this season, George Victor, and Joe Franco Five other reguiers were lost by graduation or because of moving away from the township. These five included Anthony Franco, Richard Flyan, Raymond Beinlich, Chester Bland and Al Bohnen. Bland, who moved to Rockford, won the state high school golf championship last spring.

Undefeated in 1934

The New Trier team was undefeated last year. It won the Suburban league championship, and also the league tournament at the close of the season.

Each school in the league uses a five-man team. Eighteen holes are played in each match. The boy who whips his opponent on the first nine holes earns a point for his school. Another point goes to the school whose representative wins the last nine holes. A third point is earned by each of the five boys having a better record than his opponent on all eighteen holes. Thus no individual member of a team cai, win more than three points, and no team can score higher than 15 points.
