Madeline Clarke (left) and Ruth Durham will have roles in several of the plays to be presented Saturday evening of this week in the Howard school auditorium, information concerning which is given below.

Betty Brown's dramatic classes are putting on another group of plays Saturday night, May 25, at 8:20 o'clock, at the Howard school auditorium. The twenty-eight girls taking part range in age from fifth grade to high school.

"Louisa Alcott," in which Nancy Pierson, a relative of Louisa Alcott, was to take the leading part last Saturday, was postponed owing to the illness of Nancy, and will be given this Saturday night.

The other plays to be given are "Paris Sets the Style," an amusing tale of a New York shop girl whose Parisian accent has been acquired, trying to sell the most expensive hat in her shop to Mrs. Smythe who has spent six weeks in France and regards herself as a Parisian; "Make-up," in which cosmetics take a hand in the fortunes of Anne; "Winning Ways," a play about three college girls and one boy whom each of the girls has invited to be her escort to the big dance; "Perfect Ending," dealing with the hurried efforts of a scenario writer in Hollywood to get the perfect ending for a scenario which must be ready for production the next day; two fairy plays, "The Fairy Riddle" and "Patty's Doll," and two plays of last Saturday night, "Little Black Heliotrope" and "A Dish of China Tea," produced with different casts.

Between "the acts," "Dress Rehearsal," a monologue, will be given.

Censure State Senators Over Bidwill Ouster

Severely censuring the Democrats in the Illinois state senate for having arbitrarily deprived Arthur J. Bidwill of his seat in the state senate "by a partisan vote without a recount of the ballots, which was earnestly requested by him and his Republican colleagues." The Woman's Republican club of Winnetka this week adopted the following resolution:

"The following resolution has been adopted by the board of directors of the Woman's Republican club of Winnetka. 'Whereas, Senator Arthur J. Bidwill of the Seventh Senatorial District of Illinois, after having received his certificate of election based on the official count of the ballots, and having been duly seated, now, arbitrarily has been deprived of his seat in the Senate by a partisan vote without a recount of the ballots, which was earnestly requested by him and his Republican colleagues, therefore be it

"Resolved by the board of directors of the Woman's Republican Club of Winnetka that this body vigorously protests this un-American and undemocratic exercise of arbitrary power on the part of the Democrats in the Illinois Senate, and directs its secretary to send copies of this resolution to Governor Horner, the president of the Senate, and to the newspapers of general circulation in this district.

"This resolution is not a mere expression of partisanship. The loss of one Republican vote in the Senate is of minor importance in comparison with the disfranchisement of the citizens of this district.

"Surely every honest Democrat must condemn the action of the Senate majority on this occasion, as would every honest Republican if the situation were reversed."

Unanimously adopted May 21, 1935.
Marjorie K. Hall, president.
