

OBSERVE GOLDEN WEDDING DAY

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bonnet, 157 Robsart place, Kenilworth, entertained Tuesday in honor of Mr. Bonnet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bonnet of Chicago, whose golden wedding they celebrated. Mr. Bonnet was born 72 years ago on the near north side. Mrs. Bonnet's birthplace was Mokena, Ill., but she came to Chicago in her early girlhood. They both have vivid recollections of the great Chicago fire in 1871.

Mr. Bonnet has been engaged in business in Chicago the past fifty years, having at one time been connected with the old D and M department store on the site once occupied by Siegel Cooper and company, and now by Sears Roebuck, at State and Van Buren streets. He was also connected with the Moody and Waters Pie company and the Case and Martin Pie company before these firms combined. He is now associated with his son in the advertising business in Chicago.

A host of relatives and old friends were among the guests who offered congratulations.

UNITARIAN SERVICES

"Sifting the Righteous" will be the subject of the address by the Rev. R. Lester Mondale at the services in the Unitarian Church of Evanston, 1405 Chicago avenue, Sunday morning, May 26, at 11 o'clock. The church school session begins at 9:45 o'clock.

Mrs. Albert W. Scarratt, 521 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth, and Mrs. Harold Wilson of Winnetka will be hostesses at a bridge luncheon Wednesday, May 29, at the home of Mrs. Scarratt.

SHOES THAT TYPEIFY YOUR PERSONALITY

dashing

Introducing...
CHAMOIS
GAZELLE

$7.75

RUSSIA TAN
TRIM
Built-up Leather
HeelJoseph
SALON SHOES

1629 ORRINGTON AVENUE

The Evanston Store
MARSHALL FIELD
& COMPANY

Camp Followers!

FIELD'S EVANSTON STORE OFFERS
YOU A WORTHY GUIDE TO VACATION LAND

The Camp Bureau

on the 2nd Floor of the Evanston Store

Where to go?

Our camp advisor with her registered camp list can give you all sorts of tips and valuable information concerning well-known, established camps throughout the country.

What to take?

The Camp Bureau can supply all information about requirements for camp—equipment and apparel that are standard for the camp you select.

Where to get it?

The second floor offers a complete selection of approved apparel and equipment in a wide range of prices. Shoes, socks, shirts, slacks, blankets, bedding and equipment that meets both your requirements and those of the camp.

Be Sure to See Our Model Camp Display . . . Your Tent, Kit and Apparel in the Setting for Which They Were Designed

ON THE SECOND FLOOR