Seek Flowers Tuesdays for Needy in Chicago

Tuesday, again, is Wilmette's day to send in flowers to the Chicago Plant, Flower and Fruit guild, each week, for distribution among the city hospitals and settlement houses. All people in the village are cordially invited to contribute flowers to the guild.

When you have flowers to give to the guild, and want them called for and delivered, call the chairmen for the guild in either one of Wilmette's two garden clubs, on Monday, and your flowers will be called for Monday evening and delivered early at the Northwestern station Tuesday morning.

Mrs. W. G. Mitchell, 1009 Oakwood avenue, is chairman for the guild in the Wilmette Garden club, and Mrs. John J. Mills, 400 Park avenue, is chairman for the guild in the Evening Garden club of Wilmette. The clubs alternate in taking the flowers in on Tuesdays. Mrs. Mills of the Evening Garden club took the flowers for the guild to the Northwestern depot Tuesday, May 21, and Miss Mabel Wheelock of the Wilmette Garden club will take them in on Tuesday, May 28.—F.B.M.

O. of M. Meeting

St. Francis household, Order of Martha, will meet at the home of Mrs. Max Redlin, 7419 North Damen avenue, Chicago, Tuesday, May 27, convening, as usual, at 1:30 for sewing.

Rummage Sale Today

Today (Thursday) a Rummage sale is being held at 1215 Wilmette avenue under auspices of the Young Mothers' club of St. John's Lutheran church.

Outline Women's Golf Events at Indian Hill

Mrs. A. Ballard Bradley of Winnetka, gave a luncheon at her home recently for the members of the woman's golf committee of Indian Hill club. She is chairman of the committee, and had as her guests her co-chairman, Mrs. Warren W. Shoemaker, and Mrs. Carl Kelly, Miss Marie Louise Gardner, and Miss Eleanor Sherman. They outlined plans for woman's golf at Indian Hill this summer, including play every Wednesday beginning June 5, with a guest day every fourth Wednesday. Mixed foursomes on two Sundays and two Thursdays are features of their plans for the season.

The club's buffet suppers, which will be served each Thursday and Sunday night during the summer started last week, and the club opening will be held Decoration day, May 30. The men of the club will hold a tournament that day, with a buffet luncheon and supper. Another important date on the club's calendar is July 4, when it is planned, there will be numerous events to mark the opening of the new swimming pool, which is scheduled for completion late in June.

Party for Club Juniors

On Saturday afternoon, June 1, at 2 o'clock, Mrs. George Ortseifen of 337 Ssex road, Kenilworth, who has sponsored the Juniors of the Woman's Catholic Club of Wilmette for the past year, will open her new recreation room with a benefit bridge for the juniors. Owing to Mrs. Ortseifen's illness, the party was postponed from last year.

Final Meeting Friday for Kentucky Society

The spring musicale of the North Shore Kentucky society, to be held at 2:30 Friday afternoon, May 24, at the home of Mrs. George W. Kreer, 1108 Cherry street, Winnetka, will be the final meeting of that organization this season. Mrs. Edwin Quisenberry of Evanston and Mrs. Endicott Bradstreet of Winnetka will be Mrs. Kreer's assistant hostesses.

The program will open with a group of songs by the North Shore Lyric ensemble, the choral society of the North Shore Musicians club, accompanied and directed by Electra Austin Gamron of the Northwestern University School of Music.

The reading of one of John Masefield's dramatic poems, "The Right Royal," will be particularly suitable, as this poem deals with a Kentucky race horse. Mrs. E. V. L. Brown of Winnetka is to give the reading.

The program is to close with a group of piano numbers by Miss Jean Pettibone of Winnetka, who is playing first Schumann's "Impromptu," then "Grillen," by the same composer, and finally a Spanish number, "La Compara," by Lecuona.

Illinae Luncheon

The Chicago Illinae club is having its annual luncheon Saturday, May 25, at the Chicago College club. The speaker is Dr. Georgiana Theobald, who is speaking on "The Red Cross in Siberia." Mrs. Kline Gray of Oak Park is in charge of reservations.

Mrs. George E. West, 931 Twelfth street, was hostess to her dessert bridge club Thursday of last week.
