Muni Will Star at Community Theater

Paul Muni, one of the greatest actors of the stage or screen, comes to Winnetka Community theater next Tuesday and Wednesday, May 28 and 29, in "Bordertown," which is said to be the most powerful drama in which he has ever appeared.

This production, suggested by Carroll Graham's novel, is a stark, realistic picturization of the colorful life in a town on the American border, with its night clubs and gambling resorts frequented by American millionaires and bored society women seeking diversion.

In this atmosphere Paul Muni, in the role of a foreign youth, rises to riches and power as the proprietor of a fashionable rendezvous. Two women play a vital part in his life, one a fiery adventuress, the wife of his partner. This role is played by Bette Davis, who is said to surpass even her splendid performance in "Of Human Bondage." The other woman, an American society girl, is played by Margaret Lindsay. Others in the cast include Eugene Pallette, Robert Barrat and Henry O'Neill.

Victor Herbert's immortal "March of the Toys" and "Castle in Spain," as well as the delightful fantasy and story book figures of childhood, have brought to the screen in a film that should prove a joy to children and grown-ups.

The picture is "Babes in Toyland," a new feature-length Laurel and Hardy subject playing at Community theater Friday and Saturday, May 24 and 25.

PAT'S AN "UNCLE" AGAIN

Pat O'Brien, currently starred as Stephen Chase in "Oil for the Lamps of China," again has become an honorary uncle. Ronnie Cosby, who plays the role of Pat's son in the new picture, now calls him "Uncle Steve." As a token of Ronnie's esteem, Pat has placed among his treasures an autographed photo of Ronnie, bearing the inscription, "To a Keen Uncle Steve." Pat O'Brien is one Hollywood star who is loved by every child with whom he comes in contact.

HENRY FONDA TO STAR

Louella O. Parsons, motion picture editor, Universal Service, is telling film fans to get ready to welcome a new movie leading man. He is Henry Fonda, who will be starred in "The Young Lincoln." Winfield Sheehan, an admirer of Fonda's work, has been building him steadily into a coming Fox star.

THAT UNCANNY HERO

Bela Lugosi will be the uncanny hero of "The Invisible Ray," according to Louella O. Parsons, motion picture editor, Universal Service. It's another of those blood-curdling mystery yarns produced by Universal which recently turned out "The Bride of Frankenstein" and "Werewolf of London," both box-office successes.
