New Trier Seniors Will Present "Bab"

New Trier High school's annual senior play is scheduled for the evenings of May 31 and June 1. This year's selection is "Bab," Edward Childs Carpenter's "farical comedy" based on the book by Mary Roberts Rinehart. Helen Hayes starred in the successful New York production.

The movement of the play is rapid, and amusing lines are plentiful. Complications develop when Bab arrives home from school. There follows the despair of her mother and debutante sister.

The play has been double cast. Miss Elizabeth Stanwood and Gordon Van Kirk, veteran coaches, are each directing a group.

Roberta Schilbach and Claire Nix are cast as Bab. Barbara Trump and Virginia Green will appear as the older sister, Jane Horsting and Jayne Henderson as the mother. Paul Wright and Ben Fillis will portray Mr. Archibald, the father, Bill Cassell and Rudolph Horky, the Honorable Clinton Beresford. Bob Eastman and Charles Broad, as Carter Brooks, supply romantic interest. James McNulty and Allen Cameron are cast as Guy Grosvenor, as dark a villain as the piece affords. Sixteen-year-old Eddie is played by Don Brown and Tom Enright, sixteen-year-old, Jane, by Dorothy Edwards and Mary Jane Birong. Jane Blaylock and Peggy Bird appear as Hannah, the maid, and Gordon Wells and Jim Burrell as the butler.

Miss Fern Lathrop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lathrop of 826 Humboldt avenue, Winnetka, returned Sunday from an extended trip through California and Mexico.
