Beatrice Hillinger Becomes Bride of C. C. Williamson

Miss Beatrice Catherine Hillinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Hillinger, became the bride of Chenoweth Charles Williamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Williamson of Fairmont, W. Va., Saturday, July 6, at 10 o'clock in the morning, at St. Joseph's church. The Rev. Raymond P. Hillinger, brother of the bride, performed the marriage ceremony, assisted by the Rev. Leonard Halaburt, the Rev. Arthur Sauer, and the Rev. Donald Kelly. A solo was rendered during the ceremony by Miss Marie Kunz of Chicago.

The bride's gown was fashioned of rare ivory lace, with a long train, and a girdle of braided satin. Her veil of lace and tulle, extended beyond her train and was caught at the back of her head to a tiara, fashioned of the same lace as her gown. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids, valley lilies, and white sweet peas.

Marcella Kummer, her maid of honor, wore peach mousseline-de-soie, over peach satin, with a hair braid hat of Eleanor blue, and carried talisman roses and blue larkspur. Six-year-old Anne Leach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leach of Rogers Park, was a lovely flower girl, dressed in blue mousseline-de-soie, with hat to match trimmed in peach, and carried a colonial bouquet.

Kenneth Hess, of Chicago, formerly of Fairmont, W. Va., served as best man. The ushers were John Schma of Glencoe, and Phillip L. Hillinger, Jr. of Wilmette. The bridegroom and the attendants wore white linen suits.

Mrs. Hillinger, wore black lace, with a shoulder bouquet of gardenias.

A wedding breakfast was served for seventy members of the family and friends; with reception and a buffet supper for one-hundred guests in the evening at the home of the bride's parents at 1520 Spencer avenue, Wilmette.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mueller and Mr. and Mrs. Clemens Mueller of Wheaton; Mr. and Mrs. John Schma and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Lynch of Glencoe; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leach and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kelly of Rogers Park; Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Becker of Edgewater; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Former Wilmette Girl Engaged to Be Married

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Thomas Barry of Seattle announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Clare, to Joseph John Wiatrak, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon J. Wiatrak of Chicago. The betrothal was revealed at a tea Mrs. Barry and her daughter gave at their home Sunday afternoon, July 7, in honor of a friend of the latter.

Miss Barry was graduated from Mallinckrodt High school in Wilmette and attended the University of Washington. Mr. Wiatrak is a graduate of St. Ignatius High school in Chicago and of the University of Washington, where he played tackle for three years on the varsity football team. He is a member of Chi Psi fraternity, Oval club, Big W club, and the Husky club.

Miss Barry, with her parents, moved to Seattle from Wilmette five years ago.

No date is set for the wedding.

Honors Bride-to-Be

Miss Marion Ortseifen of Kenilworth gave a kitchen shower Wednesday evening, June 26, in the recreation cottage of her home in honor of Miss Lillie Mae Humphries, who is to be married this summer. The guests, all Girl Scout leaders, included Mrs. Ira C. Reynolds, deputy commissioner, and Mrs. Ralph Moulding, past deputy commissioner. Miss Humphries is Girl Scout executive in Wilmette.

Adler, aunt of the bride, entertained at a shower. A luncheon was given by Miss Marjorie Post of Wilmette in honor of Miss Hillinger.

The young couple have left for a brief honeymoon.

Thomas M. Brown and Chicago Girl Marry

At St. Augustine's Episcopal church, Wilmette, last Saturday afternoon the marriage of Miss Harriet Rae Barter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin D. Barter of Rogers Park, and Thomas Martell Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde T. Brown of 1710 Walnut avenue, Wilmette, was solemnized at 5 o'clock by the Rev. Francis J. Tromp.

The bridegroom's brother, Kimball Brown, served as best man, and the bride's youngest sister, Ruth Anne, was bridesmaid. A wedding supper for eighteen guests, immediate members of the two families, followed the ceremony at Vera Megowen's. After a short wedding trip Mr. Brown and his bride will reside with the former's parents until autumn when they will take an apartment on the north shore.

Mr. Brown is a graduate of New Trier High school and attended the University of Illinois where he was a member of Theta Xi fraternity. He is now in the advertising department of the Chicago Daily News, where, also, his father is chief of staff of photographers.

Woman's Club Has Second Party of Summer, July 17

The second of the parties planned by the ways and means committee of the Woman's Club of Wilmette to fill the summer gap in club activities will take place on Wednesday, July 17. This entertainment will be a luncheon bridge; the time, 1 o'clock; the place, the club house, Greenleaf avenue and Tenth street.

Mrs. George D. Conlee, chairman of ways and means, has chosen Mrs. William H. Scott and Mrs. Albert G. Ackerman to arrange the affair. The assisting chairmen are Mrs. Herbert Mulford, Mrs. Charles R. Mahan, Mrs. Charles F. Kremer, Mrs. Norman C. Deno, Mrs. Harry E. Smoot, Mrs. George D. Coonley, Mrs. Julian E. Stark, Mrs. E. L. McDow, and Mrs. Ludwig Skog.

Mrs. Walter Gough has charge of the prizes and Mrs. Lincoln Torrey and Mrs. Arthur G. Bloom are planning the luncheon. Reservations may be made with any one of the committee.

These parties afford a pleasant means of entertaining house guests or of renewing one's club affiliations. In the past they have been most enjoyable and the personnel of the present committee insures the same result.—E. G. W.

Announce Marriage of Elizabeth L. Barroll

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edward Barroll of 331 Linden street, Winnetka, announce the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Laird, to Albertus Edward Wright, Jr., also of Winnetka. Mr. Wright is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wright of Los Angeles, formerly of Wilmette.

The wedding took place Thursday, June 20, at 5 o'clock, at the historic St. Alban's church in Washington, D. C. Miss Barroll and her family went east for the ceremony so that Mr. Barroll, who is located in Washington at present, could give his daughter in marriage. The wedding was informal, the bride wearing a white linen shantung jacket dress and a wide linen straw hat, and the only attendant, her younger sister, Miss Jannette Barroll, wearing a strictly tailored white linen suit and matching felt hat.

After the ceremony a bridal supper was given for the young couple at the Shoreham hotel. They spent a week honeymooning in the east and are now back in Winnetka, where they will make their home at 331 Linden street for the summer.

Reading Circle Hostess

Mrs. Louis Bruch of Evanston will have the meeting of her Reading circle, of which there are mostly Wilmette members, on Wednesday, July 17. Luncheon will precede the meeting.
