Jewish Women to Plan to Increase Council Members

Fifty members of the National Council of Jewish Women, Chicago section, will meet at luncheon at the Medinah-Michigan club on Tuesday, August 6, at 1 o'clock to formulate plans for an intensive membership campaign to begin in the near future. The local organization now comprises some 2,000 members.

The women attending the luncheon will represent every section of Chicago and its suburbs, and the campaign will be carried out along geographical lines.

Mrs. Benjamin I. Morris is chairman of membership for the Chicago section and Mrs. Louis Rosenbluth is vice-chairman. Regional secretaries are Mrs. S. Neer, Mrs. I. S. Stein, Mrs. Max Stein, and Mrs. Meyer Steinberg.

Mrs. Harry J. Myerson, president of the section, is lending her enthusiastic support to the membership campaign despite her preoccupation with arrangements for the Jascha Heifetz concert to be sponsored by the Chicago section on October 21, at Orchestra hall. Mrs. Myerson feels that this civic group will be of greater value to the community with a vastly increased membership.

A son, John Bentley Dunbar, Jr., weighing eight pounds, five ounces, was born Thursday, July 18, at the Evanston hospital to Mr. and Mrs. John B. Dunbar of 181 Sheridan road, Glencoe. The baby is their first child.
