St. Augustine's

Dr. Hubert Carleton, rector

Sunday, September 22, will be the fourteenth Sunday after Trinity. There will be Holy Communion at 8 a. m., Church schools and Bible classes at 9:45, and Morning Prayer with sermon at 11 a. m.

Saturday, September 21, is the day set apart by the Universal Church to honor the memory of St. Matthew, the Apostle. There will be Holy Communion at St. Augustine's at 8 a. m.

Our Church school last Sunday with a good registration for the coming year. All who have not yet registered should be sure to be present and register next Sunday when regular classes will be resumed.

Mrs. G. L. Roberts has taken charge of the Girls' Vested choir. Mrs. Roberts has had a long and successful career teaching children music, and we are fortunate in having such a skilled leader to take charge of and develop our girl's choir. The first practice of the choir will be held in the Parish House today (Thursday) at 4 p. m. All girls of fourth grade standing and over are eligible for membership and should enroll at once.

Our Church Boys' choir, under the direction of Thomas Fullerton, began the season singing in the church last Sunday at 11 o'clock. This group practices each Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in the Parish House where it receives instruction and practice the church service hymns.

Troop No. 4 of the Boy Scouts meets in the Parish House every Monday evening at 7:30. The executive committee in charge of the troop at St. Augustine's consists of Henry Fowler, who is also president of the North Shore Area of Boy Scouts; W. F. Jones, R. W. McCandlish, Tom Mickey, William Edmonds, and Ernest Bersch. John Fowler is Scoutmaster. Boys of the age of 12 and over will be welcome and should enroll promptly.

The Vestry will hold its September meeting in the church offices Sunday afternoon, September 22, at 3 o'clock.

Wilmette Baptist

Wilmette and Forest avenues
Rev. George D. Allison, pastor

Today (Thursday), a group of missionary leaders in this church will participate in a Mission Study conference of the Chicago Baptist Union at the Ravenswood Baptist church. Preparation for the year's activities will be given by well known teachers and missionaries. Miss Emma Brodbeck, missionary of the Wilmette Baptist church in West China, is again at work on her field after the distressing civil warfare in that region. Last Friday, a "Christmas Party" was given in her honor, at which a gift was contributed which will reach her at Christmas time.

The Reading contest in charge of Mrs. George D. Allison was launched by a series of six sparkling reviews of books of religious interest, at the Woman's society meeting last week. All interested are welcome to these books without cost. Keep them circulating!

Tonight the Chorus choir rehearses under the direction of Miss Lydia Koch. A number of newcomers will be made welcome in the musical and social side of this organization, of which Miss Marion G. Allison is president. The Junior choirs for boys and girls meet on Tuesday, girls at 3:45 and boys at 4:30.

Two preliminary meetings of the B. Y. U. have been well attended. It is hoped that Keith Jones, graduate student in religious education at Garrett Institute, will be on hand this coming Sunday at 6:30 o'clock. Rowland Davis is chairman of this live organization.

On Monday to Wednesday of next week, September 23 to 25, Dr. Allison will be one of a team of three leaders in charge of the conference of all Michigan Baptist pastors at Lansing. He has been asked to repeat there the series of four lectures given at Minneapolis recently to the Minnesota clergy of the denomination. Lay leaders will have charge of the service on Wednesday next during his absence.

The Church school is now well organized for the new season, with a full staff of workers. The annual Rally Day will be held at 9:30 on Sunday morning, September 29, and the Recognition service for all teachers and officers will follow in the worship service at 11 o'clock.

Sunday morning, Dr. Allison will preach on the theme "How Christians Grow." This continues the present series of Christ's redeeming work in our day. A cordial invitation is extended to the public, in view of the deep appreciation with which these messages have been received.
