

Activities in Social Circles

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Receive Awards for Golf Events at Sunset Ridge

A luncheon at which Sunset Ridge Country club's leading women golfers received their awards for the season featured the last golf day of the year Tuesday, Wednesday, October 2. A luncheon will be held to conclude all women's activities at the club for the season.

Mrs. Courtney Reeves of Evanston, golf chairman, awarded prizes as follows: Dave Tosh tournament, first flight, Mrs. DeWitt O'Kieffe, winner, Mrs. A. Luick, runner-up; second flight, Mrs. Comfort Butler, winner, Miss Virginia Presba, runner-up; August Angora tournament, Mrs. C. Stewart, winner, Mrs. T. Varde, runner-up; July and August putting prizes, Mrs. Dudley Fay and Mrs. Sherman Ruxton; attendance prize (three members present every Tuesday during the golfing season), Mrs. George Wait, Mrs. William McKee, Mrs. E. W. Sampson; most team points, Mrs. H. Bonfig; greatest reduction in handicap for the season, Miss Virginia Presba; ringer prizes, class A, Mrs. Jack Almond; class B, Mrs. Courtney Reeves and Miss Virginia Presba, tied; class C, Mrs. Comfort Butler.

Miss Virginia Ingram received a set of three custom-made clubs, and Miss Shirley Ann Johnson was given an electric clock, as tokens of the club's appreciation of their efforts in outside tournaments.

Wednesday was "last chance" day for those who had not received awards during the season. Mrs. H. Platt of Evanston won low net, and Mrs. Fred J. Bowman of Chicago was awarded the putting prize.

The bridge hostesses Friday of this week will be Mrs. William McKee of Glencoe and Mrs. George Wait of Evanston.

Guild Plans Bazaar

The first project which the guild of the Congregational church is planning this fall is a bazaar which is to be held all day and evening, December 5 and 6. Mrs. C. L. Darling is the new president of the guild. A large number of members attended the first party of the guild, the tea which was held last Friday in the home and garden of Mrs. Edward L. Scheidenhelm.

To Sew for Junior School

On Monday, September 23, at 2 o'clock, the North Shore Friends of Chicago Junior school will hold their regular membership business meeting at the home of Mrs. Edward A. Brion, 181 Beach road, Glencoe. The members will sew for the school. At the tea following the business session, the executive committee will assist Mrs. Brion.

Aids Benefit

Koehne Photo

Mrs. William H. Wolff of Wilmette, as chairman of the philanthropy department of the Woman's Catholic Club of Wilmette, is actively interested in the charity dessert bridge her department is sponsoring Wednesday at Shalane Country club.

College Club Officers Honored at Meeting

Mrs. Hazel K. Manville of Evanston, president of the Chicago College club, and the other new officers of the club, will be the guests of honor at a reception Friday, September 20, which will open the club's season. The hours of the affair are from 3 to 5 o'clock, and the program is to be presented by two members of the club.

Mary Rhodus Triggs will interpret "The Old Maid," a play by Zoe Akins, from the novel by Edith Wharton. Ethel Preston will play several groups of piano selections. Members of the social committee are to be the hostesses.

The club's first card party of the season will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday, September 25. Tea will be served at 4 o'clock.

Wins Fellowship

Jean Sinclair Meck, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Meck of 810 Vernon avenue, Glencoe, has received a fellowship from George Washington university, Washington, D. C. Miss Meck was graduated last year from Northwestern university with a B. S. degree, with honors in bacteriology. She is leaving for Washington, D. C., where she will make her Masters' degree along the same lines. Miss Meck, who was private secretary to the Morris Nelson foundation which does research work in connection with the Michael Reese hospital, has resigned her position to accept the fellowship.

Harvest Home Day for Orphanage Sept. 20

The Annual Harvest Home day of the Methodist Deaconess orphanage in Lake Bluff, September 20, is an occasion for the gathering of the friends of the orphanage for acquaintance with the personnel and environment of the orphanage and meeting with each other. Luncheon is served at 12:30. From 11 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon, fancy work, toys, made by the children, bakery goods, candy, flowers, and vegetables are on sale. The churches of the north shore and northwest suburbs participate actively in the event.

All friends of the orphanage are cordially invited to come to beautiful Lake Bluff for the day, a village easily accessible by auto, North Shore electric, or North Western railway.

Mrs. Arthur E. Swanson of Evanston is president of the auxiliary. Mrs. M. D. Miller of Chicago, vice president; Mrs. Ray M. Poust of Cicero, second vice president; Miss Mary E. Harwood of Lake Bluff, secretary and treasurer; Miss Jessie E. Arbuckle, superintendent.

Dinner for Alumnae of National College

The North Shore chapter of the Alumnae of the National College of Education, Evanston, will be entertained at dinner by Mrs. Frank Porter at her home, 226 Cary avenue, Ravinia, Tuesday, September 24.

Mrs. Frank Oelerich of Niles Center is in charge of the evening's entertainment.

Miss Bernice Abrahamson, 762 Walden road, Winnetka, has recently been elected to the office of chapter president left vacant by Mrs. Charles Gore upon her moving to St. Louis from Evanston.

Birthday Celebration

Mrs. F. E. Davenport held open house at her home, 404 Gregory avenue, Wednesday afternoon, in celebration of the eighty-seventh birthday of her mother, Mrs. J. H. Pitkin. Her guests were friends of the guest of honor.

Given Birthday Party

Twenty-four friends of Dick Rorey, 1341 Elmwood avenue, surprised him last Saturday evening at his home with a party on his nineteenth birthday. Last Monday he left for Northfield, Minn., to enter Carleton college.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank LeBonte and family, 1126 Forest avenue, recently returned from a month's visit at Gull Lake, Mich.

Jewish Council Year Will Begin With Tea Monday

A combined business meeting and tea will inaugurate the new club year for the Chicago section, National Council of Jewish Women, on Monday, September 23, at 1:30 o'clock, at the Medinah-Michigan club. At that time final arrangements will be made for the Heifetz concert which the section is sponsoring on Monday, October 21, at Orchestra hall.

Among the reports of work accomplished during the summer will be one of particular interest, that of Mrs. Louis E. Golan, chairman of the committee on boxes. Her committee includes Mesdames Hannah G. Solomon, Martin Barbe, Samuel Alschuler, Gerson B. Levi, I. J. Reis, Harry Grossfeld, and Leon Stern.

At the conclusion of the business session Mrs. David Riff, chairman of the Dramatic Discussion group, will read a current New York stage success, "Awake and Sing," by Clifford Odets. Oscar Chausow, formerly a soloist with the Chicago Symphony and Civic orchestras, and at present a member of the Salvi ensemble, will present a brief musical program.

The Heifetz concert committee is headed by Mrs. Harry A. Kahn as chairman; Mrs. Benjamin I. Morris, vice-chairman; Mrs. Milton Klein, secretary, and Mrs. Samuel L. Herman, treasurer and ticket chairman. Mrs. Herman is being assisted by sub-chairmen throughout the city, and Mrs. Milton H. Grauer of Glencoe is in charge of the north shore sale. Mrs. Harry J. Myerson, president of the section, is an ex-officio member of the concert committee and is one of those most anxiously striving to make a success of the one Chicago appearance of the world-famous violinist before his departure for Europe.

Cotton Anniversary

Miss Marion Ortseifen was hostess in the recreation house at her home in Kenilworth last Friday evening to a group of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority sisters in honor of Mrs. Theodore Fuch (Eleanor Rice) and in celebration of her first (cotton) wedding anniversary. The decorations carried out the theme of the anniversary celebration.

Guest of Honor

Mrs. George M. Christophel, 237 Greenleaf avenue, was hostess at luncheon and bridge for two tables of guests Wednesday of last week in honor of Mrs. John B. Camp of Birmingham, Mich., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Robert McClure, 1215 Lake avenue.