REWARD FOR GOOD SERVICE

Mathew Francis Photo

AT BRIDGE CONVENTION

Mrs. William A. Bradford, 422 Ninth street, and Mrs. Margie M. Penick, 609 Central avenue, are at the Blackstone hotel attending the Eli Culbertson bridge convention for advanced teachers.

Clyde Hays, 519 Laurel avenue, returned last Sunday from a three weeks' business trip in the east.

IN NEW LOCATION

The Wilmette Music and Radio company, of which Joseph Marty is the head, has moved from its former quarters in the Wilmette Theater building to larger space in the First National Bank building. The change gives the shop the additional floor space made necessary by constantly increasing business, it is explained.
