

Weddings + Engagements + Notices

By VERA McDERMID

Bernice Bulley Will Be Married to Fred P. White

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Bulley, 220 Sheridan road, Kenilworth, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Bernice May, to Fred Postin White of Evanston, on Wednesday evening, October 23, at 8:30 o'clock, at their home.

Miss Bulley will have but one attendant, her little niece, Nancy Starrett, daughter of the R. Ward Starretts. Mr. White will have his brother, Mark White, III, serve as best man.

Miss Bulley is a graduate of Wellesley college and Mr. White of Northwestern university law school. They will make their home in Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Loucks of Kenilworth entertained at a bridge dinner Wednesday of last week in honor of Miss Bulley and Mr. White. Martin Carlson was host at a Sunday night supper for the bride and bridegroom elect. On Saturday, October 5, Mrs. James Melville (Virginia Marshall) of Evanston will be hostess at a pantry shelf shower and tea.

Miss Bulley's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allan E. Bulley of Kenilworth, will entertain at tea. Several other parties are planned, the dates of which as yet are undecided.

Lecturer-Journalist College Club Speaker

"Front Page Stories From Moscow and Berlin" will be related by Mrs. Harriet Goodwin Deuss for members of the Chicago College club at a meeting to be held at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. Mrs. Deuss, a lecturer-journalist, will be the club's guest at luncheon following her lecture.

The College club will inaugurate Family night Thursday, October 10, with a dinner and program. This is planned as an occasion for each member of the family to enjoy. Following dinner at 6 o'clock, Mrs. Helen Duncan Gilchrest will tell the colorful story of "American Clipper Ships," illustrating her talk with music, paintings, and a rare ship model. Her program begins at 7:30.

Thursday of this week the club is having a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Crafts Watson, in Ravinia. Following a box luncheon at 1 o'clock, the group visits the studios of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peyraud and other artists.

Robert O. Berger, 306 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth, will be host Friday, Saturday, and Sunday to his annual stag party at his summer home at Twin Lakes, Wis. The guests will play golf at Lake Geneva, and their wives will be entertained by Mrs. Karl Korrady, formerly of Kenilworth, at her home in Galesburg, Ill.

Betrothal Announced

A tea for forty-five guests at the William F. Freudenreich home in Kenilworth Saturday was the occasion of the announcement of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Freudenreich to William Archibald Yonkers, son of Mrs. Edward Henry Yonkers of Evanston.

Elizabeth Freudenreich to Wed William Yonkers

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Freudenreich of 314 Abbotsford road, Kenilworth announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth, to William Archibald Yonkers, son of Mrs. Edward Henry Yonkers of Evanston, formerly of Wilmette.

The announcement was made last Saturday to forty-five guests at a tea at the Freudenreich home.

Miss Freudenreich graduated from Roycemore school and Northwestern university, where she was an Alpha Phi, and she took graduate work at Oklahoma University last year.

Mr. Yonkers attended several art schools after finishing high school, and is now established in business in Chicago.

The wedding is to be the night before Thanksgiving, November 27.

At Friends in Council

The Friends in Council of Evanston are giving a reception and tea in honor of the Junior group at the Georgian hotel Saturday, October 5, from 3 to 5 o'clock. A program of music will be presented by Miss Beatrice Mazer. Preceding the reception, the senior group will hold a business meeting.

Mrs. Leigh W. Bowles is president of the executive board; Mrs. Julius Schoeninger, is vice-president and program chairman; Mrs. L. A. Drew recording secretary; Mrs. Frank Neubacher, corresponding secretary; Mrs. George A. Spalding, treasurer.

Mrs. C. R. Zink is chairman of art and music; Mrs. D. W. Smith of American Citizenship; Mrs. Frank Neubacher of literature.

Miss Lois Phelps Is Wed to C. J. Seward

Miss Lois Munselle Phelps, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Phelps, of Wilmette, was married to Charles J. Seward on September 21, at her parents' home. Dr. George D. Allison performed the marriage service in the presence of only relatives and a few close friends.

The bride wore a flowered organdy gown with a shoulder corsage of gardenias. Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Ruth Vernetta Phelps, who wore embroidered organdy and a shoulder corsage of pink roses. The bride's mother was in flowered chiffon. E. L. Tharp of Wilmette served Mr. Seward as best man.

Out-of-town guests who came for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Newman of Waukegan, Mr. and Mrs. James Weir of Chicago Heights, Mr. and Mrs. Loel Green and their small daughter, Shirley, of Peoria, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Kester of Park Ridge, and Mr. and Mrs. George L. Martin of Brookfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Seward are making their home on Park avenue.

Honolulu Is Locale of Wedding of Olive Dennis

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Collins Dennis of 702 Elmwood avenue, Wilmette, announce the marriage of their daughter, Olive Louise, to Thomas Evans Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Ellis of Honolulu, Saturday, September 21, at Honolulu.

The bride wore a white lace evening dress and hat, and a carnation lei. Her twin sister, Miss Virginia Dennis, her only attendant, was gowned in pink. After the wedding service, which took place at the home of the bridegroom's parents, a reception was held at the Royal Hawaiian hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis will be at home at Lihue Kauai, T. H., after October 1.

Will Have Luncheon

The Lambda Chi Alpha Mothers club of Northwestern university will open fall activities at a luncheon meeting at the fraternity house Friday, October 4, at 12:30 o'clock. The new officers for the coming season are Mrs. Albert G. Ackermann of Wilmette, president; Mrs. Harold Kent of Chicago, vice-president; Mrs. George D. Colborn of Evanston, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Albert Michaelis of Chicago, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Carter of Highland Park, treasurer.

Complete Style Show Plans

Final plans for the annual fashion show of the Winnetka board for the Northwestern University settlement were put into shape at an all-day meeting, with luncheon, Thursday of last week, at the home of Mrs. Richard Yates Hoffman. Mrs. Ryland A. Wolcott was Mrs. Hoffman's co-hostess. Thirty members of the board were present at this important session.

Miss Catherine Taft and Ralph Wheelock Are Married Today

Miss Catherine Laura Taft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Clair Taft, whose marriage to Ralph Axford Wheelock, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wheelock of Winnetka, formerly of Kenilworth, takes place this evening (Thursday) at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, in Wilmette, is wearing an ivory satin gown with a train. Her tulle veil falls from a braided satin cap, and she carries a bridal bouquet of valley lilies and gardenias.

Her sister, her only attendant, Miss Helen Elizabeth Taft, is wearing turquoise moiré with a short train, and carrying an arm bouquet of long-petaled chrysanthemums in autumn shades. Mrs. Taft wears rust colored velvet with a corsage of orchids and Mrs. Wheelock is dressed in black chiffon and lace, with a similar corsage.

Mr. Wheelock is serving his son as best man.

The Rev. D. H. Cornell of the Glencoe Union church will read the marriage service before the fireplace transformed into an altar with a seven-light candelabrum on either side. Chrysanthemums in autumn shades decorate the mantel and the rest of the house.

Among the parties given for Miss Taft have been a paper shower with Miss Sarah Page as hostess; a personal gift shower and evening bridge given by Miss Elizabeth Jenkins and Miss Martha Etzbach; a pantry shower with Miss Mary Forrest of Winnetka as hostess; a bathroom shower and buffet Dutch supper with Miss Virginia Taylor of Winnetka the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dalton of Evanston entertained Sunday at a cocktail party and bar shower.

After a honeymoon, the destination of which is undisclosed, Mr. Wheelock and his bride will make their home at 727 Hinman avenue, Evanston.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding are Mrs. Taft's mother and sister, Mrs. Theodore Obring and Miss Natalie Obring, of Ridgewood, N. J., and Mr. Taft's sister and her daughter, Mrs. George Wicke and Miss Dorothy Wicke of Forest Hills, Long Island.

Marriage Announced

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Mrs. Frederic Halsted Lent, formerly of Winnetka and Cleveland, and Ralph Wadsworth Moody of Wilmette. The ceremony took place Saturday, September 28, at the home of the bride's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis C. Tatham, 1408 Elmwood avenue, Evanston. Dr. Aubrey Moore officiated. After a trip including Boston, New York, and Bermuda, Mr. and Mrs. Moody will reside at the Homestead in Evanston.