

Kaskaskia D. A. R. Is to Hear Robert Kingery

Robert Kingery of Winnetka, director of the department of public works and buildings of the State of Illinois, will open the season of Kaskaskia chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, when he speaks on "Highways of Illinois." His talk is to be given following luncheon Tuesday, October 8, at the home of Mrs. John Flint Dille, 2727 Lincoln street, Evanston.

Five Evanston members, Mrs. Chester N. Johnson, Mrs. Myron C. Lyons, Mrs. Frank O. Potter, Mrs. William E. Sparrow, Jr., and Mrs. Leon J. Willien, will assist Mrs. Dille.

At this first meeting there is to be discussion of the programs planned for the year. November 12, the chapter will have luncheon at Mrs. George T. Jordan's home in Chicago and will have Brig. General Dana T. Merrill, U.S.A., Commandant of Fort Sheridan, as the speaker. Mrs. Royden James Keith of Chicago will be the hostess December 10, and the speaker will be Prof. Avery O. Craven, acting chairman of the department of history of the University of Chicago, who will speak on "The Old South in American Culture." Lieut. Col. Ralph A. Kimble will speak on "Patriotism in Stamps," and an harmonica band from Erie chapel will play at the meeting to be held January 14, at the Chicago home of Miss Florence Sargent.

An illustrated talk on "Colonial Illinois," by Mrs. Edgar J. Goodspeed, will be given February 11, at the home of Mrs. George L. Cragg, in Chicago. The March 10 luncheon will be served at the Chicago Historical society, and the speaker will be Prof. Edson S. Bastin, chairman of the department of geology and paleontology, University of Chicago. National and state officers will be the guests of honor that day.

Mrs. John C. Nevins of Winnetka is to be the luncheon hostess April 14. There will be a report on the state conference, and Mrs. Warren W. Shoemaker will speak on the "Lincoln Memorial Garden." Another Winnetka member, Mrs. Raymond J. Koch, will open her home for the May 12 meeting, when there will be annual reports and election of officers.

Marie Morrissey, contralto, will give a group of songs at this final meeting of the club year.

Garden Center to Hear of "Herbs in Garden"

Mrs. William C. Evans, who won a blue ribbon in the Flower show of the Garden Club of Illinois two years ago at the Navy pier, for her garden of herbs, will speak on "Herbs in Your Garden," at the meeting of the North Shore Garden center at 10:30 Monday morning in Winnetka Community House. Mrs. Evans is a member of the Evanston Garden club, which has arranged the October programs at the center.

Mrs. Walter Lovelace, vice-president and program chairman of the Lincolnwood Garden club, spoke at the Garden center Monday, exhibiting bulbs from a Winnetka flower shop and showing slides prepared by the Better Homes and Gardens program department. Her subject was "Bulbs Throughout the Year," and she emphasized the need of good drainage in loose soil, and the necessity of mulching after freezing, for the proper cultivation of bulbs.

Annual Meeting for Home and Garden Club

The annual meeting of the Kenilworth Home and Garden club takes place at Indian Hill club Monday, October 7, with luncheon at 1 o'clock. After the reports by various officers, a miniature flower arrangement display will be held.

The exhibits may be entered singly and in pairs, the dimensions to be under five inches each.

A speaker has been procured for the afternoon, Rose Reinhardt Anthon. Her subject is to be "Seven Years in a Hindu Palace."

Mark Small of Kansas City, Mo., was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Kinney, 126 Abingdon avenue, Kenilworth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nuveen, 520 Warwick road, Kenilworth, are leaving Tuesday for New York where they will visit Mrs. Nuveen's mother.

Definitely
1936

are the distinctive Sport Clothes,
Dinner and Evening Gowns
displayed by

N. A. HANNA, INC.

952 Spanish Court

Wilmette 467

Tatman's Reduction Sale on English Bone China Plates

It started October 1st and continues thruout the entire month.

Discounts of 20% to 33 1/3% on the entire stock of China Plates of our two stores.

A rare opportunity for huge savings on Service, Dinner and Dessert Plates in the loveliest patterns of Minton, Spode, Cauldon, Royal Doulton, Royal Worcester.

TATMAN, INC.

625 North Michigan Avenue
Chicago

707 Church Street
Evanston

WITH great pride we acknowledge the invitation to again exhibit our fur garments at the Northwestern University Settlement Style Show which will be held at Christ Church Parish House
Tuesday, October the eighth.

UHLEMANN
furs

7 W. Madison St., Corner State. Entire 4th Floor

60 YEARS OF DEPENDABLE FUR VALUES