"The Arizonian" Comes to Community Theater

Produced by the same studio and staff which made "Cimarron," "The Arizonian" comes this Friday and Saturday to the screen of Winnetka Community House theater as Richard Dix's new starring picture. The result is a good stirring Western. Dix, a real he-man, opposes the villains. Margot Grahame, blonde English beauty, has the leading feminine role opposite the hero, while Preston Foster is a dashing reformed bad man, Louis Calhern the crooked sheriff, and James Bush the hero's brother. Part of the picture was filmed at the famous Vasquez rocks, the hideout of many notorious bandits of early California history.

CHAT WITH THORPE'S BOYS

Barbara Stanwyck and Preston Foster are working in "Shooting Stars." While resting between scenes, they enjoy talking to the two Indian boys, sons of Jim Thorpe, All-American Indian athlete, now doing bit parts in the movies.

FRED STONE AGAIN

Fred Stone, who made his film debut in the success, "Alice Adams," will have another chance to display his gay entertaining talent in "Farmer in the Dell."

Spencer Tracy Is Sleuth Reporter in Movie at Valencia

Valencia theater patrons will find plenty of excitement this Thursday and Friday in "The Murder Man," a rapidly moving, entertaining mystery set against a newspaper background with Spencer Tracy as the sleuth reporter.

Saturday brings "Storm Over the Andes," a thrilling picture, featuring Jack Holt and Mona Barrie.

"Every Night at Eight" is smooth, melodious entertainment for Valencia patrons Sunday. Starring George Raft, the picture brings to the audience radio programs—from amateur nights to national hookups.

Book Return Engagements

Beginning next Monday with "The Virginian," the Valencia theater opens a week devoted to return showings of pictures either by patrons' vote or by their request. "The Virginian" stars Gary Cooper and Walter Huston. The doors will open at 10:30 o'clock Monday for a special morning show.

Tuesday at the Valencia is filled with drama and adventure. Robert Donat plays the lead—and he's precisely the right man—in "The Count of Monte Cristo," the picture which Valencia devotees selected as their first choice for a return showing.

"Smilin' Through" Wednesday

"Smilin' Through," winner of the Photoplay gold medal as the best picture of 1932, returns to the Valencia Wednesday.

Next Thursday is tuneful with a return showing of "Naughty Marietta," starring Nelson Eddy, the new singing sensation, and Jeanette MacDonald.

BEFRIENDS LITTLE KING

"Professional Soldier" features Victor McLaglen as the American soldier of fortune, who is a boy monarch's friend in need. Freddie Bartholomew plays the little king.

ALICE FAYE PROGRESSES

Alice Faye, who has risen to high rating since her advent into the movies less than two years ago, is appearing in the Fox film, "Music and Magic."

SALLY O'NEIL RETURNS

Sally O'Neil, favorite of silent-picture days, returns to the screen in "Too Tough to Kill" at the Columbia studios. The film stars Victor Jory.

ELEANOR WHITNEY SIGNED

Paramount has given a contract to Eleanor Whitney, who won high praise for her dancing and acting in "Millions in the Air."
