Myron L. Sparr Dies; Managed Theater Here

Myron L. Sparr, former theater manager in Wilmette, died of heart attack last Thursday at Paxton, Ill. Mr. Sparr was 50 years old. He managed the old Village theater from the time it opened in June, 1914, in what is now the First National bank building until January, 1922. For about a year Mr. Sparr also managed the old Central theater, which occupied the same location as the present Wilmette theater and which, during Mr. Sparr's managership, was owned by the same interests that controlled the Village theater.

After resigning as manager of the Village theater Mr. Sparr went into the restaurant business, and for a time operated the Shack in "No Man's Land" near the intersection of Tenth and Sheridan road.

At the time of his death Mr. Sparr was manager of the Paxtonian theater at Paxton. He moved to Paxton in June, 1934.

Mr. Sparr is survived by his widow, Mrs. Adele Reynolds Sparr, and two sons, William and Robert. The funeral services were held Saturday morning at Paxton, and the remains were brought to Chicago for burial in Rosehill cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. S. Hardwick, 757 Twelfth street, have as their Thanksgiving day guests Mrs. Charles Geiger and Miss Viola Geiger of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Geiger and baby of Evanston.

Victor Arnason, a freshman at the University of Illinois, is spending his Thanksgiving holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sigurdur Arnason, 1412 Maple avenue.

CENTRAL-LAUREL P. T. A. NEWS

The regular monthly meeting of the Central-Laurel P.T.A. was held in the gymnasium of the school, Tuesday, November 19, at 2:30 o'clock.

The attendance was not as great as had been hoped to hear the very fine lecture by Dr. Archibald Hoyne. Those who were fortunate enough to be able to attend felt surely repaid. Dr. Hoyne spoke of the "Common Cold" and the serious effects derived from it. He explained the immunization of the different contagious diseases, answered questions and cautioned his hearers to keep the children home when they have colds.

The String Trio composed of Miss Hornsberger, first violin, Miss Biese-meier, second violin, and Miss Creer, cello, were enthusiastically received.

Child Study

There is to be another lecture by Dr. Lane to mothers of pre-school and first grade children December 9 at 10:15 o'clock. On December 11 at the same hour Dr. Lane will talk to the mothers of the children of second grade and up. Both of the lectures will be in the small gymnasium of the Central school.

Tea Hostess

Mrs. H. W. Kingery will be hostess to mothers of the children in Miss Twinner's second grade room at a tea in her home, 519 Forest avenue, Tuesday afternoon, December 3, at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Harley L. Ward is room chairman.

Firemen Get Call to McIntosh Residence

The Wilmette Fire department was called to the residence of Robert L. McIntosh, 121 Woodbine avenue, last Saturday morning shortly after 11 o'clock when a rear porch caught fire. The origin of the fire was undetermined. Fire Chief Walter Zible estimated that the damage would range between $100 and $150. Two runs were made by the Wilmette firemen in the past week to extinguish automobile blazes. One occurred at 1633 Highland avenue last Friday night about 7:30 o'clock and resulted in slight damage. Another at 2233 Lake avenue on Sunday caused no damage.

Thief Relieves Woman of Fur Coats on Train

Mrs. Dorothy Aremburg, 6110 S. Ashland avenue, Chicago, boarded a Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee train at Winnetka on Thursday of last week, carrying a package containing two fur coats which she had taken from storage at M. B. Okean Furriers, Inc., 548 Lincoln avenue. Upon reaching Greenleaf avenue and Tenth street, Wilmette, she discovered that the package was missing, as was also a man whose description she could not give. One brown beaver coat was valued at $360, and one muskrat coat at $125.

Mrs. James M. Gates of Pittsburgh and her two sons and their families, the J. R. Gates' and the J. A. Gates' of Shaker Heights, Cleveland, are spending the Thanksgiving week-end with Mrs. Gates' daughter and her family, the Lincoln C. Torreys, 1341 Elmwood avenue.

The Tuesday bridge-luncheon club was entertained this week at the home of Mrs. George D. White, 1101 Greenwood avenue.
