PRESENTS RECITAL SATURDAY

Gloria Love, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chase W. Love, 422 Cumnor road, Kenilworth, will play three piano numbers on the Lyon and Healy recital program this Saturday afternoon. She is a pupil of Mrs. S. R. Lake, who has charge of the program.

Police Arrest Youth
Impersonating Officer

Allan Lundberg, 17, formerly of 516 Fifth street, but now living in Winnetka, was arrested Saturday by Sergeant Herman G. Vance on two charges, securing money under false pretenses and impersonating a police officer. Lundberg had posed as a son of Chief of Police Cloyd C. McGuire in order to secure credit and loans of cash from the Sheridan restaurant at 344 Linden avenue. Representing himself to be a police officer he borrowed $8.30 from Viola Halverson, a housemaid employed at 527 Central avenue, and $40 from Anita Marks, an Evanston housemaid. In both instances he used the name of Patrick Allen.

Wilmette Firemen Called to T. C. Knip Home

The Wilmette Fire department was called to the Theodore C. Knip residence, 410 Maple avenue. Tuesday morning about 9:30 o'clock. There was a blaze inside the chimney, but the fire resulted in no damage. The firemen made only one other run in the week ending Tuesday, December 10. Last Saturday night at 9:45 o'clock they went to 1046 Elmwood avenue to assist a family accidentally locked out of the house.

When does an Auction become a Function?

For the North Shore Art league, the answer is "Already." For the Annual Auction of small paintings, etchings and sculpture has already become one of the functions of the north shore.

This year—the third—will offer a better class of work than ever before. Then, too, no less than six auctioneers will take turns in offering the lots to the bidders. Who the six are is a carefully guarded secret, lest they be overwhelmed with requests for special favors!

Last year, 96 lots were sold to the highest bidders. This year it is expected that over two hundred lots, each a single painting, etching or sculpture, will be offered.

The Art league has moved the time of this auction to Friday evening, December 13, at 8 o'clock in the league studio, Winnetka Community House. The choice of the day is to make it a "Lucky Day" for those who come, and to make it possible to find Christmas presents of distinction and outstanding value as well as to benefit the league and its artist-members.

Next week, the classes will recess for the Christmas period. The studio, however, will be open for the use of members and for inspection of the exhibition of student work, from the class, which will open during the week.

Miss Jane Horsting, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Horsting, 1103 Elmwood avenue, will be home on Saturday, December 21, from Duke university for the Christmas holidays. She is a freshman at college this year and has been pledged to Delta Delta Delta sorority.
