Annual Pantry Sale and Program Gala Sisterhood Event

One of the major projects of the Sisterhood of the North Shore Congregation Israel, the annual pantry sale, will be held at the Temple in Glencoe this coming Monday. The sale of fine home-made foods and outstanding gift articles will start at 11 o'clock in the morning to continue through the day.

Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock, to be followed immediately by the program which will feature a book review by Avis Shulman and vocal selections by Miss Berenice Taylor.

Mrs. Shulman will review "Byron the Years of Same," a new biography by Quennell which is one of the important books just recently published. Miss Taylor, a soprano of fine talent, who has gained wide favor as a concert and radio artist, and who is a member of the Temple choir, will be heard in a well balanced program of songs.

The ways and means committee, of which Mrs. Harold Moses is chairman, has planned many attractive gift and novelty booths in addition to the usual food booths. An interesting sale is assured.

Luncheon reservations are to be made with Mrs. H. N. Misch, of Glencoe, not later than Thursday, December 12. Mrs. B. H. Goodman, chairman of the social committee, is in charge of the luncheon arrangements.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend the luncheon and participate in the day's activities.

Carolers Again to Sing at Indian Hill Club

The outstanding feature of the Christmas festivity at Indian Hill club is the carol singing.

This year, on Sunday, December 22, at 5:30 o'clock, the sweet voices of carolers will be heard on the clubhouse grounds. Promptly the procession of children and some of the members will make its way to the lighted tree for the singing of age-old Christmas music. When the carols are ended the entire assemblage will step into the main clubhouse and into the German village (the locker room in its winter dress) where afternoon tea is served.

The program of carols this season is open only to members of the club, their families, and house guests.

A pre-holiday party, one of Indian Hill's regular supper dances, is being held at the club Saturday evening this week. Four club events are planned for the holiday season. A young people's dance, for those of high school age and older, will be held Saturday, December 28. January 1, the club will hold open house, and Friday afternoon, January 3, the seventh and eighth graders will have their party.
