

Activities in Social Circles

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Is Chairman

Legaré-Loving Photo

Mrs. C. C. Bennet is chairman of the patron and patroness committee for the Evanston-North Shore Smith College club's scholarship benefit, the performance of a loop musical show, "Anything Goes," Friday evening, December 27.

Connecticut Alumnae to Give Christmas Dinner

The Connecticut College Alumnae association is holding its annual Christmas dinner for undergraduates on Monday, December 23, at the College club. Each year the number of girls at Connecticut from the Chicago area has increased until at the present time Chicago chapter numbers some sixty members. The officers for the year 1935-36 are: Miss Ernestine Herman, president; Miss Harriet Webster, secretary; Miss Ruth Fordyce, treasurer; Miss Margaret Ray, publicity chairman; Miss Elizabeth Flanders, Woman's College board representative.

Giving Tea for Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lewis, Jr., 610 Washington avenue, are having a tea on Thursday, December 26, for the north shore friends of their daughter, Miss Mary Jean Lewis, who returned last Sunday from Smith.

Tea Christmas Afternoon

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. MacKinnon, 321 Leicester road, Kenilworth, are entertaining very informally at tea on Christmas afternoon for the young people who are friends of their son, Cy, and their daughter, Cecilia.

Bridge Luncheon

Mrs. Charles S. Clarke, 526 Washington avenue, entertained three tables at luncheon and bridge on Tuesday.

New Trier Girls Sponsor Charity Ball December 21

A group of New Trier girls, in the midst of the holiday festivities, has decided to sponsor a dance, its purpose being two-fold, however. While it will add to the social gaiety of the holiday season, it will at the same time benefit charity. On Saturday evening, December 21, at 9:30 o'clock, the Charity ball will be given at the attractive and unusual Electric club on the thirty-ninth floor of the Civic Opera house, for the benefit of Gads Hill settlement work.

Annually this group of girls sponsors a charity benefit at Christmas time. Miss Grace Bull of Glencoe is chairman of the committee in charge of tickets which may be procured from her at her home, 834 Greenwood avenue. Betty Clements of 381 Sterling road, Kenilworth, is general chairman.

The Electric club, entirely English in its atmosphere, offering one of the most beautiful views of the city, was organized by Samuel Insull, who imported much of its furnishings and woodwork from abroad.

Bon Voyage Luncheon

Miss Marion Ortseifen of Kenilworth was hostess at luncheon and bridge Friday, December 13, in honor of Mrs. Otis Rich of the Edgewater Beach apartments who is leaving for a holiday cruise of the West Indies. After luncheon in the Ortseifen home on Essex road, bridge was played in the Recreation house adjoining.

Will Have "Open House"

Miss Joy Mervis, 141 Robsart place, Kenilworth, will have a cocktail party and "open house" on New Year's day in honor of Miss Arlene Mann of Chicago, whose betrothal was announced recently. Miss Mervis will be home this Friday from the University of Wisconsin.

To Have Birthday Party

Pearl Mervis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Mervis, 141 Robsart place, Kenilworth, will celebrate her thirteenth birthday this Friday night at a dinner party for sixteen of her classmates in the eighth grade of the Joseph Sears school.

In Princeton Play

Clifton Osgood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Osgood, 423 Essex road, Kenilworth, who is a junior at Princeton, is a member of the cast of "What a Relief," the Triangle club's production for this year.

To Assist at Tea

Miss Peggy Lou Doering of Wilmette is to be one of the assistants at the tea to be given by Dr. Carl B. Davis of Evanston on Sunday, December 22.

Will Make Joint Debut at Luncheon Tuesday

The joint debut of Miss Joan Sutter of 827 Prospect avenue, Winnetka, and Miss Barbara Soper of Lake Forest will be a luncheon to be given at Indian Hill club the day before Christmas by the debutantes' mothers, Mrs. Alvar R. Sutter and Mrs. James P. Soper, Jr. The debutantes of the season and a very few other friends of Miss Sutter and Miss Soper will be the guests. Miss Sutter attended the Erskine school in Boston, and Miss Soper is a graduate of Miss Walker's school at Simsbury, Conn. Miss Sutter will be guest of honor at a cocktail party Miss Eleanor Kirkland of Chicago is to give Sunday, December 22.

Return for Holidays

Miss Betty Palenske, a student at the Edgewood Park Junior college at Greenwich, Conn., is returning home Saturday of this week. Her brother, Roger, who is attending the University of Arizona, arrives the same day. They will spend their holiday season with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reinhold H. Palenske of 226 Tenth street. Miss Betty, according to recent news from the college, is first on the honor list for the first quarter of this year.

Home for Holidays

The following girls will return the latter part of the week from the University of Illinois: Virginia A. Snorf, Eleanor D. Shapiro, Antoinette Russo, Jean Munro, Martha A. Huff, Florence C. Hanson, Reeva J. Golden, Caroline Calloway, Ruth Seymour, of Wilmette; Pauline A. Newton of Evanston, formerly of Wilmette, and Jeanne Scarratt of Kenilworth.

Giving Tea Sunday

Miss Martha Farmer and Miss Mildred Farmer have invitations out for a tea on Sunday, December 22, from 4 until 6, at their home, 915 Elmwood avenue. There will be about sixty guests. The young women who will pour are Miss Barbara Bull, Miss Eleanor Idler, Miss Betty Weber, and Miss Maxine Keiling.

Coming for Christmas

Mrs. Robert Jerome Nickles, Jr., and her baby daughter, Nancy, are coming to Wilmette Sunday from their home in Madison, Wis., to spend a week with Mrs. Nickles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Branson of 817 Central avenue.

Have Dinner Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. Leon T. Ellis, 207 Cumberland avenue, Kenilworth, entertained at dinner and several tables of bridge last Friday night.

Debutante

At a tea dance at Indian Hill club Thursday afternoon, December 26, Miss Anne Burnham will be introduced to society by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Burnham of Winnetka. The hours of the debut are from 4 until 7 o'clock.

Smith Clubs Will Meet for Christmas Breakfast

The Evanston-North Shore Smith club will meet with the Chicago Smith College club for Christmas breakfast Saturday, December 21, at 12 o'clock, at the Blackstone. The guests of honor will be Ruth DeYoung, woman's editor of the Chicago Tribune, and Marian Hill Hoch of Chicago, a director of the Smith Alumnae association. Miss DeYoung will speak on "A College Education—What It Means to a Newspaper Writer." Mrs. Hoch's talk will be, "Flashes of Smith 1935." The breakfast meeting has been arranged so that adjournment will be by 2 o'clock in order that members may have the afternoon to go where they please. Some of them are attending matinees.

Reservations for the Christmas breakfast may be made with Mrs. Horace Greenough Marchant of Evanston.

To Marry in January

Ralph C. Angell, who has been living at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Lorenzo Streeter, 302 Central avenue, and is in business in Chicago, is to be married January 3, to Miss Eleanor Laverack of Buffalo, N. Y. The young couple will make their home in Kenilworth.

Has Birthday Party

Lilyan Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Scott Campbell, 523 Essex road, Kenilworth, celebrated her seventh birthday last Saturday at a luncheon and afternoon party for fourteen guests.