NEW TRIER HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Wildkits Pound N. T. Cinders on Saturday

The New Trier varsity track team, which conquered Englewood, city champion, 55 to 39, at New Trier last Saturday, will play host this Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock to the Evanston thinclads. This meet will launch the indoor Suburban league track season for New Trier. The frosh-soph teams of both schools also will compete.

Bud Barber and Kenneth Cowan, New Trier varsity co-captains, will run the 440. Another promising speedster in this event is Jim Lightbody who shattered the fieldhouse record by showing his heels to Englewood in :54.4.

The twins, Bill and George Murray, and Bob Vernon and Tom Harrington will pant for New Trier in the mile and half mile, while Tom Gallagher and Ray Hanson will heave the 12-pound shot. Others who show promise of point-getting are Bud Morton in the hurdles, Lowell Snorf in the 50-yard dash and Jack Fyfe in the pole vault.

Track coaches John Noy and Paul Delaporte also have their eyes on the following frosh-sophs: Monroe, DeVinny, Elliott, Jennings, Sublett, McFadzean and Brown.

Serve at Information Desk 2nd Semester

The following students have been appointed to serve at the information desk during the second semester which started this last Monday at New Trier High school: Bud Fisher, Maynard Kindt, Tom Anderson, Ed Colegrove, Hall Clark, Gilbert McIntosh, Dick Babcock, Bud Weil, Sidney Craig, Eugene Simon, Perc De Tamble, Stafford Drake, Bob Brown, Jack Porter, Phil Frye and Frank Stannard.

Mother and Daughter Banquet Comes Feb. 12

The Girls club of New Trier will hold the Mother and Daughter banquet on Wednesday, February 12 at the New Trier mess hall at 6 o'clock. The entertainment is being furnished by talented girls of the school. All girls are urged to invite their mothers. The banquet is held every two years.

TICKET SALE OPENS

Tickets will go on sale next week at New Trier High school and at Chandler's for the program which Cornelia Otis Skinner will present March 4 at New Trier auditorium. The program will be given under the auspices of the Tri-Ship club to swell the student aid fund.

CLUB HEARS EDITOR

Lucy Hawkins, editor of the Matrix magazine, addressed the Quill club at New Trier High school Tuesday afternoon.

JUNIOR MUSIC CLUB

The Junior Music club of New Trier High school met Wednesday, February 5, at the home of Ruth Goodhue in Winnetka.

Harold B. Hemb, 517 Linden avenue, accompanied by W. D. Harris of Chicago, left Tuesday of last week for a vacation in Florida. They will be away for several weeks and will visit both the west and east coasts, and in particular Miami and Jacksonville.

New Trier and Oak Park Meet for Swim Title

New Trier or Oak Park?

The Suburban league swim situation has simmered down to just that—and the championship will be decided this Friday when New Trier varsity natators match splashes and speed with Oak Park at the latter's pool. Both teams are undefeated.

New Trier impressively demonstrated its power in the home pool Tuesday by submerging Evanston, 57 to 22. The junior splashers elbowed their way past Evanston, 34 to 32.

This Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Coach Edgar B. Jackson will see what his mermen can do against Maine Township High school. The meet will be held at New Trier.

New Trier Basketeers Will Invade Oak Park

New Trier's rapidly reviving heavyweights and title-seeking frosh-sophs will invade Oak Park this Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock for a twin cage clash.

The New Trier frosh-sophs, tied with Morton for the Suburban league lead, will try to stretch their win string which almost snapped last Friday at New Trier where the locals eked out a 22-21 win over Waukegan.

The heavyweights, however, smothered Waukegan, 42 to 28, and served notice that Oak Park will have to do some fast stepping this Friday. Though New Trier heavies have no title hopes, they're out to ruin the dreams of other Suburban quintets.

Offer "Tom Sawyer" This Friday, Saturday

"Tom Sawyer," the drama of Mark Twain's boyhood, is being presented at New Trier High school this Friday and Saturday by the Dramatic club as the school's contribution to the centennial of the famous humorist's birth. Freshmen and sophomores comprise the double cast being directed by Miss Elisabeth Stanwood and Gordon Van Kirk, of the English department. Robert Harper of the faculty supervised the construction of five different sets for the drama.

Brings Jungle Thrills to Fathers and Sons

Dr. William Harwood, humorist and wild animal trapper who has returned after 25 years in Africa's darkest jungles, will provide the entertainment at the father and son banquet which the Tri-Ship club is giving February 20 at the New Trier mess hall, F. D. Frisbie, club sponsor, announced this week.

COLLEGE CONSULTANT

New Trier junior and senior girls have been notified that a representative from Frances Shimer Junior college, Mount Carroll, Ill., will spend the morning with them on Friday, March 6. She will consult all girls interested in that junior college.
