Wilmette Baptist

Wilmette and Forest avenues
Rev. George D. Allison, pastor

Tomorrow, (Friday night), there will be a cafeteria dinner served at the church followed by a delightful evening's entertainment. Another of those "get-together" occasions that do us all a lot of good. Harry N. Kerr is chairman of the committee in charge of the program, ensuring a happy evening for all who come.

Tonight, (Thursday), is Choir rehearsal night. Every member is needed to prepare an inspiring musical setting for the gospel message. Dr. Allison has returned from a great trip, preaching in Seattle, Portland, Sacramento, Stockton, San Francisco, and Phoenix. He reports a most uplifting experience, of which he will tell at the next meeting or two of the congregation. Be sure to come next Wednesday night for this.

Sunday morning, the Church school meets in regular departments at 9:30. George B. Williams is leading the Adult class in Goodspeed's "Story of the New Testament." Earl C. Carlson, chairman of religious education, urges parents to enter their children in our classes of all grades.

The church service on Sunday will center about the Gospel of Luke, which will be the theme of a Ten-week's Study in the "Life of Christ" leading up to Easter. The opening message by Dr. Allison is entitled "Christ and Temptation." There will be old familiar gospel hymns and the following special music: Prelude: "Harmonie du Soir"

Karg-Elert
Offertory: "Reves" Guilmant
Postlude: "Finale, 7th Sonata" Guilmant

By Miss Lydia Koch, organist
"O Savior of the World" Goss
"He shall feed his flock" Harker
Anthems by Chorus Choir

Stopping at Los Angeles between trains, Dr. Allison made pastoral calls on Mrs. Rexford Bellamy, Mrs. Charles E. Thompson and sons, Willard and Harold, Mrs. Helen Wisdom, and Mr. and Mrs. Terrell Stapp, all of whom wished to be remembered to Wilmette friends. He also called on Mickey and Minnie Mouse at the Walt Disney studios.

A RESOLUTION

The Evanston-North Shore Real Estate board desires to express to Lloyd Hollister Inc. its appreciation for the timely Building Number of the January 16 and 17 issues of the WILMETTE LIFE, WINNETKA TALK, and GLENCOE NEWS and congratulates the publishers upon the excellent manner in which this surprising story was presented.

This Review of North Shore 1935 Building Activity was a splendid work and on all sides are heard expressions of amazement at the extent of new home building. The publishers are to be complimented for recognizing the magnitude of this activity—going on so quietly—and then portraying it in so vivid a manner.

The members of this board are happy to have participated in this encouraging showing and feel a deep sense of responsibility for maintaining the standards and traditions that have made the north shore one of America's most sought after community of Better Homes.

In the past the Hollister publications have contributed much to this upbuilding and the membership of

SHERIDAN ROAD

January 30, 1936

Members of the North Shore Property Owners association appreciate the editorial that appeared January 9th, relative to Sheridan road and the importance of preserving the residential character of the area through which it runs.

The matter of installation of lights and other speed controls is being studied by this association and every effort is being put forth to protect Sheridan road and the entire north shore from agencies that would mar the beauty and desirability of this section as a place in which to live.

Sincerely,

North Shore Property Owners Ass'n
Paul Darrow Paddock,
Secretary

this board hopes the future will find them still more active in the interests of Better Homes for a Better North Shore.

Adopted by resolution at the regular meeting of the Evanston-North Shore Real Estate board, Monday February 3, 1936.

Postmaster O'Connell Lends Sympathetic Ear to License-less Folk

Postmaster Herbert L. O'Connell, who is a stickler for efficiency, is lending a particularly sympathetic ear to quite a number of villagers who, through no fault of their own, remain license-less in so far as state automobile plates are concerned.

It seems that while these citizens have made due application for the 1936 vehicle plates—some of them two months ago—the plates for which they have made payment are simply not forthcoming. Mr. O'Connell, the postmaster, has been hearing plenty about the situation.

All of which takes us back to Mr. O'Connell's personal predicament.

Our good postmaster sent in his money-order for the state plates in December. He received a photostatic copy of his application blank indicating that the plates "have been mailed under separate cover." But he hasn't received the plates. Repeated correspondence with the Secretary of State brings no further satisfaction than that there's something "screwed" about the way our dear state officials are handling the license plate business.

Meanwhile Mr. O'Connell has been making a collection of plain and fancy police tickets, both here and abroad in the county. These he proposes to transmit to the Department of State in the hope that his plight may bring some action. He doesn't care so much what his license number will be. He'd be tickled to have any plates at all, so long as they bear the 1936 designation and restore him to the good graces of the constabulary, here and abroad.

The Sunday school meets at 9:45 a. m. with classes for children from the kindergarten through the high school. Visitors are welcome.

The end of the month, Mr. Thomas will join Mrs. Thomas, and they will go on to New York by way of the Panama canal.
