Eleanor Berger Becomes Bride at High Noon Feb. 5

In the Kenilworth Union church at high noon, Wednesday of this week, Miss Eleanor Berger, the daughter of Robert O. Berger, was married to Eduardo Hellmund of Kansas City, Mo. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Herbert L. Willett before only the members of the families, a wedding breakfast at the Berger residence, 306 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth, following.

The bride wore an ice-blue crepe afternoon dress made with a jacket and trimmed in mink, and an ice-blue hat. Her accessories and veil were brown and she carried gardenias. Mrs. Jones Shannon of Detroit, Mich., a classmate of Miss Berger at the Knox school, Coopers-town, N. Y., was matron of honor and only attendant. Her brown crepe afternoon dress harmonized with the brown accents in the bride's costume, and she wore a brown hat and carried yellow token roses and blue freesia.

For his best man Mr. Hellmund had Donald D. Davis of Kansas City. The bride and bridegroom are motoring to Excelsior Springs, Mo., on their wedding trip, and will make their home in Kansas City.

Tuesday evening Mr. Berger gave a dinner party at Indian Hill Country club in honor of his daughter and the bridegroom. Friday of last week Mrs. Martha Berger, the bride's mother, and her sister, Mrs. Charles H. Gibson of Winnetka, were co-hostesses at a tea at Mrs. Gibson's home.

Three Dinner Dances Dot Shawnee Calendar

The Colonial club, a five-piece orchestra, has been engaged by the Shawnee Country club to play for the two young people's dances scheduled for next week-end. A Junior High dinner dance for seventh and eighth graders will take place Friday evening, February 14, and is to be a Valentine party.

The following evening, Saturday, February 15, a Freshman-Sophomore hop will be held for the older group. This also is to be a dinner dance.

The adult calendar of events at Shawnee reserves the evening of February 22, for one of the most important club activities of the year, the annual Shawnee anniversary dinner dance. Over a period of eight or more years, the anniversary party has been a major social event at the club.

Mary Crane League to Discuss Plans for Two Benefits

The February meeting of members of the board of the Mary Crane league will be held this coming Monday at the home of Mrs. Smith William Storey, 531 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock.

Mrs. Herbert E. Zipprodt will be co-hostess with Mrs. Storey.

Plans to be discussed at this meeting include the semi-annual Rummage sale to be held in April in Evanston and the annual card party in May. Dates for both events will be given later.

Mrs. Storey, who is chairman of the Kenilworth chapter, will open her home Tuesday, February 11, to the Kenilworth members of the league to discuss ways and means of raising additional funds for the support of the summer camp at Bowen Country club, Waukegan, which entitles each child of the Nursery school maintained by the league at Hull House, to a two weeks' vacation.

So much benefit was derived from the camp last year, the first one in which the little ones were sent away, that each member is anxious to help make this possible again this year.

Following these discussions and plans, tea will be served.
