Congregational Guild Will Have Birthday Party

A birthday luncheon will be held by the Woman's guild of the Congregational Church of Wilmette, of which Mrs. C. L. Darling is president, Friday, February 14. The twelve luncheon tables will be decorated for the different months of the year, and members and guests will find their places at their own birthday tables.

Mrs. Howard Miller is social chairman of the guild, and the Crescent circle will serve the luncheon.

The guild's new chorus of ten singers will make its debut in the program arranged by Mrs. Frank Adams, program chairman. In the chorus are: Mrs. C. S. Coates, Mrs. Frederick W. Taylor, Mrs. H. C. Toeppen, Mrs. C. L. Darling, Mrs. John B. Hill, Mrs. W. A. Richardson, Mrs. William H. Hayt, Mrs. H. A. LaRoy, Mrs. R. A. Marmaduke, and Mrs. Glen Roberts. Mrs. Paul Hoffman is the accompanist.

A book review will be presented by Mrs. Richardson, and Mrs. Stanley Johnson will conduct the devotionals. Preceding the luncheon, the board will meet at 11:30 o'clock in Pilgrim hall.

Mrs. Gale Brooks, missionary chairman, is planning a series of weekly meetings during Lent for the study of Latin America and Mexico. Mrs. Coates will act as the leader of the study class.

Interprets Barrie Play to College Club Members

A reading of one of James M. Barrie's most delightful plays, "Rosalind," will be presented to members of the Chicago College club at their next meeting, at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. Mrs. Agnes White, dramatic reader, teacher of speech, and play director, will give her interpretation of this play.

The club's third lecture in the course on "Practical Psychology and Everyday Living" will be given at 11 o'clock Monday morning by Dr. Charles T. Holman of the University of Chicago faculty, and will be entitled "The Cause and Cure of Inner Conflict."

A Northwestern university professor, Dr. Leslie Fuller, will be presented on the February "Family Night" at the club, Thursday, February 13. After dinner, which is to be served at 6 o'clock, Dr. Fuller will show moving pictures of his trip "One Thousand Miles by Canoe to Hudson Bay."

The College club's dinner in honor of Dudley Crafts Watson, scheduled for February 5, was postponed to Tuesday, February 11. Dinner will be served at 6:30, and at 8 o'clock Mr. Watson will give a lecture.

A sewing group for both club and welfare sewing will meet the afternoons of Monday, February 10 and 24, the admission card being a thimble, according to the club bulletin.

Married Forty Years

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wild celebrated the fortieth anniversary of their wedding with a dinner for the family and a reception following for forty guests Wednesday, January 29, at their home 628 Greenleaf avenue.

Bridge and Style Show Aids Settlement School

The North Shore alumnae of Pi Beta Phi are holding a benefit bridge party Friday afternoon, February 7, at 2 o'clock, at the Evanston Masonic temple. This affair, held annually, is for the purpose of raising funds for the settlement school maintained by the national organization of Pi Beta Phi at Gatlinburg, Tenn. Under the leadership of the president, Mrs. Carleton C. Cummins, general chairman, the entire alumnae association is helping to promote the success of the affair.

Mrs. David Hicks is in charge of the sale of tickets and Mrs. Dail Goodson is arranging for the prizes. Members of the active chapter at Northwestern university will serve as models for the style show which is being planned by Mrs. J. F. Whalley as one of the special features of the afternoon.

Mrs. Charles Husting has charge of the arrangements for tea which will be served by the Northwestern pledges and Mrs. Gerald Mark is planning the decorations. A table of bakery delicacies is being arranged by Miss Jean Burns.

Dealt Thirteen Clubs

A group of freshman girls from New Trier has been playing bridge every Friday recently, and not long ago, when the group met at the home of Nancy Bercaw, 741 Eighth street, Jane Ethel Newman was dealt thirteen clubs. Mrs. O. M. Bercaw, who has been giving the girls bridge lessons, said it was a most exciting event. Miss Newman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip H. Newman of 411 Washington avenue.

Valentine Ball at Casino Will Aid Maternity Center

Plans for their annual spring benefit party are now receiving the center of attention of members of the North Shore auxiliary of the Chicago Maternity center, according to Mrs. Kenneth L. Wilson, president of the organization. It is hoped that the proceeds of this present venture will exceed even the very successful benefits of the past few years, one of which was held at the studio home of Benjamin Marshall in Wilmette.

Mrs. Jack Griffin, social chairman of the organization, has chosen the following chairmen for the party which is to take the form of a Valentine Ball and Supper dance to be held at the Casino club in Chicago, on February 15.

Mrs. Lee Shedd of Evanston, general chairman of the benefit; Mrs. J. L. Houghteling of Winnetka and Mrs. John Andrews King of Lake Forest, co-chairmen.

Appointed to the following committees by Mrs. Shedd are:

Tickets — Mrs. Stuart K. Fox, chairman; Mrs. William Colwell, Jr., co-chairman, and Mrs. R. D. Snow, Mrs. M. L. Schweers, Mrs. Thomas E. Fiske, Mrs. Ade Schumacher, Mrs. Samuel Lang, Mrs. Fred Ploger, Mrs. Fred Cross, Mrs. J. J. Johnson, Mrs. Patrick Joyce, Mrs. Fred W.
