Reserve Officers
to Hold Dinner,
Ball February 22

Members of the North Shore chapter, Reserve Officers Association of the United States, are making arrangements for a testimonial dinner and ball in honor of Col. John W. H. Pollard, to be given Saturday evening, February 22, in the Orrington hotel, Evanston.

The occasion is the annual dinner meeting of the chapter of which Colonel Pollard has been president during the past year. Colonel Pollard, prominent physician and Evanston health commissioner, goes on the automatic retired list this spring. He is commander of the 119th General hospital.

Arrangements for the affair are in the hands of several committees from the chapter, which has a membership of about 75 reserve officers resident on the north shore.

Chairmen have been chosen as follows: dinner, Capt. Tell Nelson, Evanston; publicity, Lieut. Kirk Taylor, Evanston; arrangements, Maj. George R. Harbaugh, Wilmette; tickets, Capt. Walter C. Bowman, Evanston; entertainment, Lieut. James Leahy of Evanston.

Guests of honor will include Admiral John Downes, Commander, 9th Naval District, Great Lakes; Maj. Gen. D. T. Merrill, commanding officer, Fort Sheridan Military Post; Gen. Charles G. Dawes, former Vice President of the United States; Capt. E. D. Washburn, professor of Naval Science and Tactics, Northwestern university; Col. T. V. Siqueland, commanding officer of the 317th Cavalry; Col. Philip Fox, commander of the 341st Infantry, and Mayor Charles H. Bartlett of Evanston.

North shore members of the chapter who are actively engaged in assisting with preparations for the dinner and ball include Col. William A. Carroll of Glencoe, Col. Max Woldenberg of Winnetka, Major George R. Harbaugh of Wilmette, Major Frank Woods of Winnetka, Capt. W. W. Hawkins of Wilmette, Lieut. Walter F. Olson of Winnetka, Lieut. Joseph W. Jogl of Wilmette and Lieut. Raymond J. Thorsen of Winnetka.

Roland Edward Nelson,
New Trier Pupil, Dies

Roland Edward Nelson, 14 years old, a freshman at New Trier High school, died Tuesday morning at his home, 412 Woodlawn avenue, Glencoe, after an illness of 24 days. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nelson, and two sisters, Dorothy May and Barbara Ann.

Roland Nelson resided in Winnetka, his birthplace, until four years ago when his parents moved to Glencoe. In the elementary schools, he showed remarkable talent as a cartoonist, and his work appeared in Glencoe school papers. At New Trier he also showed aptitude for athletics.

He was intensely active in Sunday school and church work at the First Evangelical church, Winnetka, where funeral services were held Thursday of this week, with the Rev. Melvin M. Sequine officiating. Burial was in Memorial Park.

ANNA E. WEBER DIES

Anna E. Weber, 69, for several years a Wilmette resident, died of cerebral hemorrhage February 2. Burial was at Thraikill cemetery, Miertown, Ind.

Mrs. Alex S. Joslin, 240 Essex road, Kenilworth, entertained her reading club for luncheon Tuesday of last week.
