The installation of new officers will be of major importance at the next meeting of the North Shore Alumnae association of Kappa Kappa Gamma on Wednesday, May 20, at the home of Miss Cora Kling, 2306 Orrington avenue, Evanston at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Richard C. Evans is the new president.

To be inducted with her are Mrs. Thomas Singleton, first vice-president; Mrs. Clifton Stowers, second vice-president; Mrs. John Falconer, recording secretary; Mrs. William Reed, corresponding secretary; Miss Julianna Holmes, treasurer; Mrs. Richard Fencil, social chairman; Mrs. Edwin M. Hadley, Jr., philanthropic chairman; Mrs. H. L. Dalton, membership chairman; Mrs. Dudley Faust, chairman of directory; Mrs. K. L. Wilson, Panhellenic chairman; Mrs. George F. Falley, historian; Miss Adelaide Allison, magazine chairman; Mrs. Marshall Underhill, program chairman; Mrs. Allison Clark, house representative; Mrs. Howard White, Jr., Key correspondent.

Mrs. Fred L. Stone, formerly Elizabeth Sweet of Wilmette, will be alumnae delegate to the Kappa convention which is to be held this year at Seignory club near Toronto from June 21-June 30.

Meets in Wilmette

The Delta Epsilon Iota club, of which Miss Lorraine Huncke of Highland Park, is president; Miss Loretta Strum, Chicago, secretary, and Miss Mary E. O'Connell, Highland Park, treasurer, was entertained at the home of its vice-president, Miss Eulalia Barker, 1765 Washington avenue, Wilmette, recently. Following an interesting business session, the members enjoyed games of cards.

Mrs. Walter Doering of Wilmette will entertain sixteen guests for luncheon and bridge at Westmoreland Country club May 20.

Junior D. A. R. Group Plans Benefit Bridge

Proceeds from a benefit bridge party to be given Friday afternoon, June 5, by the Junior group of Fort Dearborn chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution at St. Luke's Parish House, Evanston, will be used for purchasing materials for garments to be distributed by the Visiting Nurse association. The garments will be made during the coming year by the Junior Group members.

Mrs. Reid R. Bronson, chairman of the ways and means committee of the younger women's organization, will be in charge of the party. She is to be assisted by Mrs. W. A. Catanach and Mrs. Arthur C. Stringer.

Refreshments, which will be served late in the afternoon, will be in charge of Mrs. Harry L. Hampton. Her assistants will be Mrs. Kenneth W. DeGarmo, Mrs. Everett E. Eckenbeck, Mrs. James S. Spoerri, Mrs. Dean L. Traxler, and Mrs. W. A. Catanach.

Another aim of the young women will be to establish a flag fund to provide an American flag for the Evanston hospital. Later, smaller flags may be bought and donated to patriotic purposes.

Miss Gertrude Lammers is chairman of the Junior group of the D. A. R. Mrs. Thomas C. Gray is secretary and membership chairman and Mrs. Walter Burket is treasurer. The group was organized the latter part of February.

Mrs. Fred Norman Heads Chi Omega Association

The North Shore Chi Omega association held an election of officers Monday night of last week at the Chapter house in Evanston. Mrs. Fred Norman is president; Mrs. Reuben Davy, vice-president; Miss Margaret Welton, treasurer; Miss Dorothy Smith, recording secretary; Mrs. Theodore Rehn, corresponding secretary. At the meeting the association elected Mrs. Fred Norman as delegate from Evanston to the national convention of Chi Omega which will be held at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., June 19-24.

Alpha Xi Deltas Have Annual Benefit May 16

Mary Alice Shaughnessy is chairman of the annual alumnae benefit bridge party of Theta chapter of Alpha Xi Delta, which will take place at the Chapter house on the Northwestern university campus Saturday afternoon, May 16, at 2 o'clock. Miss Shaughnessy lives at 1357 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette. Miss Juliette Rolle of 1959 Kenilworth avenue, Wilmette, is ticket chairman.

Attend Wedding

Mrs. Harriet L. Milford, 256 Woodstock avenue, Kenilworth, is spending several weeks in Washington, D. C., visiting her son, Morton M. Milford and his family. She attended the marriage of her grandson, Samuel Elliott Perkins, to Miss Mary Collins on May 5. Paul H. Davis, Jr., a resident of Kenilworth and a student at the University of Pennsylvania Medical school, was also in Washington at his cousin's wedding.
