

NEW TRIER HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Take Second in All-State Meet; Suburban Next

With a second place at the 42nd annual state interscholastic track meet as a reward for last week's efforts, Coach John Nay's men this week are pointing to the suburban league varsity and freshman-sophomore meets, Saturday afternoon, at Phelps field, Indian Hill.

Oak Park-River Forest High is the favorite to win Saturday's classic in which the seven schools of the league will participate. Other schools: Proviso Township High school of Maywood, J. Sterling Morton High of Cicero, Evanston Township High school, Deerfield-Shields High school of Highland Park, and Waukegan High.

Trackmen who put New Trier into second place with 14½ points behind winning York Township High school of Elmhurst, who took 20, were: Jones, who won 200 yard low hurdles in the meet record time of :23.4, and who took fifth place in the 120 yard high hurdles; Coonley, second in the quarter mile; Cowan, third in the same event; Morton, fourth in the low hurdles.

Expected to compete, Saturday, in the suburban league meet, which will begin at one o'clock, will be, such leaders as, in the quarter mile event, Morton's Wuthrich, New Trier's Cowan and Coonley; in the high hurdles, New Trier's Jones; in the 100 yard dash, Oak Park's Hirsch; in the high jump, Oak Park's Canham and Evanston's Burke; in the broad jump, Evanston's White and Britt; in the low hurdles, New Trier's Morton and Jones; in the 220 yard dash, Oak Park's Hirsch.

Shapiro, Jayne New High School Editors

Milton Shapiro and Sears Jayne will be the associate editors of the "New Trier News," undergraduate weekly publication at the high school. It was announced this week by Robert Carpenter, member of the English department and faculty sponsor of student journalism.

Others on the staff will include Hal Bergman, Fred Wellman, Charles Suydam, Elizabeth Weld, Evan McIlraith, Don Scarff, Margaret Stein, Martha Jane Harshaw, William Bonner, Stanley Jones, Imogene Kaufman, Edna Baughman, Richard Labonte, Katherine Neeves, Macklin de Noctolis, and Thomas Harrington.

Members of the business staff will be Vaughan Bulingham, business manager; Richard Cowan, Fred Bird, James Badger, Dan Seiden, Robert Tansill, Charles Gregory, Carl Hotze.

Change Seating Plans at School Commencement

Change in plans for seating at the annual commencement, to be held in three weeks at New Trier High school, were announced, this week, by Superintendent Matthew Page Gaffney.

Two tickets will be issued to each of the approximately 500 members of the graduating class, and these tickets will entitle holders, who will enter through the side doors of the Leslie F. Gates gymnasium.

Others who desire to attend will be admitted to the non-reserved section, it was explained.

BASEBALL

New Trier Team Makes 28 Runs While Breaking Even on Four League Games

Winning two games and losing two more, New Trier's baseball team in the last week scored 28 runs while permitting opponents to make only 11.

On Monday of last week, Proviso invaded Indian Hill to take a close 1 to 0 contest which went into extra innings. Fischer and Roberts were the battery for the locals.

On Wednesday, Evanston High was trounced by a score of 17 to 0, the Gray-Green making 16 hits in the first five innings, after which Coach Clyde Grater sent in his second team. Glover and Thompson pitched for New Trier and Roberts and French caught.

On the following day, the Treverians traveled to Cicero to drop a close one to the Morton High team 4 to 3, after tying up the game in the first and again in the seventh inning. For New Trier the battery was Bruhn and Roberts.

On Monday of this week, Coach Grater's men played host to Deerfield High's nine by beating the Highland Park boys 8 to 6. Roberts caught for New Trier, and Glover and Bruhn pitched, the latter being given credit for the win.

Boys Elect Nielsen Tri-Ship President

Arthur Nielsen, tennis star, was elected president of the Tri-Ship club, boys' organization at New Trier High school, it was announced last week, by F. Donald Frisbie, member of the social science department of the school, and faculty sponsor of the club. Other officers elected were William Spinney, vice-president; Benjamin MacKinnon, secretary; and William Stebbins, treasurer; James Neilson, chairman of the inter-school relations committee; Theodore Buenger, chairman of student aid; James Lamb, chairman of the club room; John Dix, chairman of the dinner committee; and Vaughn Burlingham, publicity chairman.

Arthur Nielsen

Students Will Conduct Republican "Convention"

Students in the social science classes at New Trier High school, under the direction of C. William Riley, faculty sponsor of the project, and Dr. Laura Ullrich, department head, will present to their fellow pupils a mock session of the Republican national convention next Wednesday morning in the Leslie F. Gates Memorial gymnasium.

New Trier Boys Capture State Net Championship

John McConnell and Tom Rodman of New Trier defeated their opponents from Jacksonville High school to win the state tennis doubles title at Champaign, last Saturday. New Trier also won the team title with 43 points.

Head Your Class in One of These

Graduation Formals

For this important occasion, Miss Graduate, you'll want something the least bit sophisticated. And Mother, you'll want something youthful looking, a dress that can be worn to parties later on—and yet not too expensive. We've kept these things in mind, and so suggest you see our grand collection of party frocks. Here's what you want at a price you want to pay!

There's many a compliment waiting for you when you wear this dainty pink organdy dance frock! Flattering peplum, and soft pleated frills, with blue grosgrain ribbon for trim.

$6.98

Sizes 12 to 16

Have the time of your life in this cool green organdy party frock with its taffeta sash, cape collar and organdy flowers! The wide full skirt will be perfect for dancing.

$4.98

JUNIOR APPAREL—SECOND FLOOR

WIEBOLDT'S - EVANSTON