BY FLORENCE*LACE.....

Never in recent years has there been such a scope of lace expression. The Lace Balls held lately in Paris and New York have been instrumental in the promotion of lace... Some interesting models are: a short sleeved spectator sports dress of ecru cotton lace with a strictly tailored jacket... A dinner ensemble with a cut-a-way bolero jacket in sheer black lace with an all-over scroll design of white soutache braid... An evening creation of simple classic lines in white silk Chantilly, outlined in silver or white satin-covered cords... A formal gown of black in Bohemian patterned lace, set off with ruches of self-material bound in silver kid.
