Mrs. Fisher Injured Seriously in Wreck

Mrs. F. L. Dailey, 221 Greenleaf avenue, has been called to New York by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Joseph Fisher, who was seriously injured in a recent train wreck. Mrs. Fisher, said to be the only passenger seriously injured, was on the North Shore limited of the Michigan Central bound from Chicago to New York when it collided with a freight train on a siding near Cogswell road, a mile west of Wayne, Mich., at 4:20 o'clock Sunday morning, July 5. She is in the Post Graduate hospital in New York. The locomotive, two baggage cars, and a mail car of the passenger train left the track and turned over. The engineer died from burns, it is reported.

Mrs. Rocky Campenella, before her marriage on June 20, was Dorothy Schinler. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schinler of 1718 Lake avenue, Wilmette. The bride and the bridegroom who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Campenella of Glenview, are now at home in Glenview after a honeymoon through the west.

Drive to New York for Wedding July 15

Miss Lucille Hoffman, twin daughter of Village Trustee James B. Hoffman and Mrs. Hoffman, 1510 Washington avenue, and Miss Louise Seddan of Glenview, left Saturday morning for New York in Miss Seddan's car, with Miss Hoffman driving. Their objective was New York City, where Miss Hoffman acted as bridesmaid at the marriage of Miss Seddan to Henry Metz, formerly of Glenview, which took place on Wednesday, July 15. Miss Hoffman then proceeded to Shortsville, N. J., to spend her vacation with the Misses Mildred and Lucille Haugh, former Wilmette residents.

PLAN MOTOR TOUR

The Rev. and Mrs. Leland Danforth left yesterday for New York by motor. They will be joined there on Sunday by Dr. and Mrs. Harold Schildberg who are leaving tomorrow. Together they plan to motor for a few weeks through Canada. The Danforths will return through Michigan stopping at Beacon to pick up their daughter, Nancy, who is visiting Mr. Danforth's family at their summer home.

CALLED RECKLESS

Tuesday afternoon E. Bryggari, 1829 Laurel avenue, driving south on Ridge road, made a wide right turn into Wilmette avenue, striking and knocking down a stop light control box. With him was James Krier, 1237 Main street. Both were arrested Bryggari being held on a charge of reckless driving.

FAMED DUTCH CONDUCTOR AT RAVINIA PARK

William von Hoogstraten Will Be Guest Conductor of Symphony This Week-end

Returning from a holiday in Europe, Willem van Hoogstraten will go directly to Ravinia Park, where he will conduct the Chicago Symphony orchestra during the third week of summer concerts, beginning Thursday, July 16, and continuing Friday and Saturday evenings and Sunday afternoon.

A guest conductor in great demand, Mr. van Hoogstraten has been regular conductor of the Stadium concerts in New York City. Here his work has been largely responsible for the success of this experiment in symphonic music out-of-doors during the summer months.

He has appeared at the Hollywood Bowl and with the St. Louis, Detroit and San Francisco orchestras. After his Ravinia appearance he will go to Portland for a broadcast July 23. On August 1 and 2 he will conduct the Philadelphia orchestra at Robin Hood Dell, and beginning August 5 he will conduct the New York Philharmonic Symphony orchestra at the Lewisohn Stadium for a fortnight.
