CHICAGO*NORTH SHORE BOYS ENJOY FAR NORTH OUTING

Sixteen boys from Wilmette, Kenilworth, Winnetka and Glencoe are spending an enjoyable summer at Camp Kooch-I-Ching on Rainey Lake near International Falls, Minn. The camp, which is owned and operated by Coach Jack Vance of the Northwestern university football coaching staff, has a total enrollment of 78 boys.

RETURN FROM EAST

Dr. and Mrs. Harold R. Schildberg, 312 Sterling road, Kenilworth, returned Sunday from a trip through the east. On Wednesday their children returned from Bloomington, Ill., with Mrs. H. Thomassen, and her daughter, Connie, who will visit the Schildbergs for about a week.

Braun Bros. Oilers Win
Close Game at Skokie

The Braun Bros. Oilers again scored a close 3 to 1 victory at the expense of Westwood, Ill., under the skillful pitching of Bob Runnfeldt, who held Westwood to 4 hits, their one tally coming in the fifth inning on a walk, an error and a hit.

Bud Fisher opened the Oilers' hitting in the first frame with a single; G. Runnfeldt, Marqua and B. Runnfeldt also singled in the first, driving in two runs. Other hits were gathered by Herb Herbon, and Luther Milton. The final tally came in the eighth when B. Runnfeldt repeated and scored from first on an error and wild pitch.

The Oilers now stand in second place after playing 10 games, using Roberts as catcher and Runnfeldt and Black as ace moundsmen. The next game is 3 o'clock Sunday, August 9, at Skokie Playfield, Winnetka.

Fred Barrows of 123 Melrose avenue, Kenilworth, returned Thursday of last week from a two weeks' motor trip to Canada. He was accompanied by Tom Vallee of Milwaukee and Allan McDonald, John Seippel, and Dolph Florsheim, all of Evanston.

Mrs. A. S. Joslin, 240 Essex road, Kenilworth, entertained her book club at luncheon on Tuesday.

Local Republicans
Aid in Busse Outing

New Trier's Young Republican organization, composed of members of the Tenth District Young Men's club, are cooperating with Oscar Schmidt of Wilmette, chairman of the Busse Day outing on September 19 at Ehrhardt's grove, Talcott road, Park Ridge, Ill.

All Cook county Republican committeemen are cooperating with Mr. Schmidt in the venture, which is to honor William Busse, the Republican nominee for county recorder. It is planned to invite Frank Knox, Republican candidate for vice-president, John Hamilton, chairman of the Republican national committee, C. Wayland Brooks, candidate for governor of Illinois, and Otis Glenn, candidate for United States senator, to speak.

Games for adults and for children, as well as a number of other events have been planned.

Edwin Robson, Wilmette village prosecutor, is in charge of ticket sales for the county. It is planned to make the outing one of the outstanding events in Republican activities prior to the election, it was stated.

Young Republican Rally Given Wide Support

Ray Steffens, in charge of the dance and Young Republican rally, sponsored by the Tenth District Young Men's club at Shawnee Country club on the evening of August 15, this week announced that 924 tickets for the affair have already been sold, and that the party already has become the largest affair ever sponsored by the Young Republican group in the township.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Goettsch, 733 Maclean avenue, Kenilworth, returned Sunday from a week's cruise on Lake Michigan in their yacht. Mr. Goettsch had sailed in the Mackinac race and Mrs. Goettsch and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Carr of Highland Park joined him at the end of the race.
