

William H. Callow, Principal

BE A PRIVATE SECRETARY

Our Secretarial Course provides the student with specific training to fill a really high grade situation. We have many calls for our graduates. New school year Sept. 8.

Evanston Business College
1718 Sherman Avenue UNiversity 3004

PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS

BLUMS • VOGUE

At Evanston . . . 709 Church Street

A New Camel's Hair

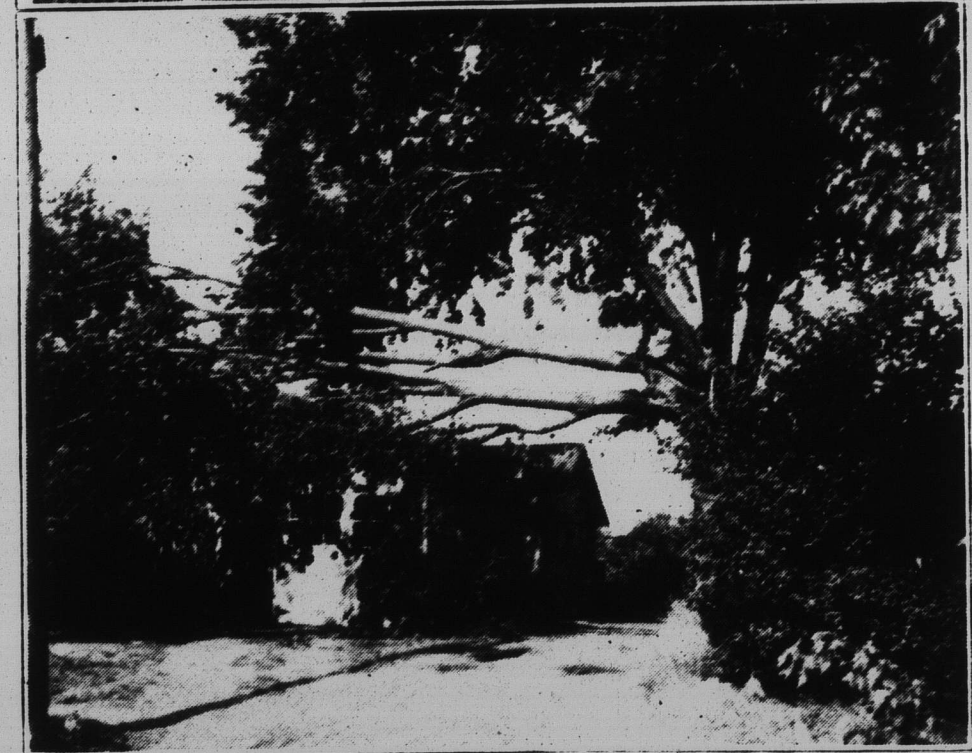

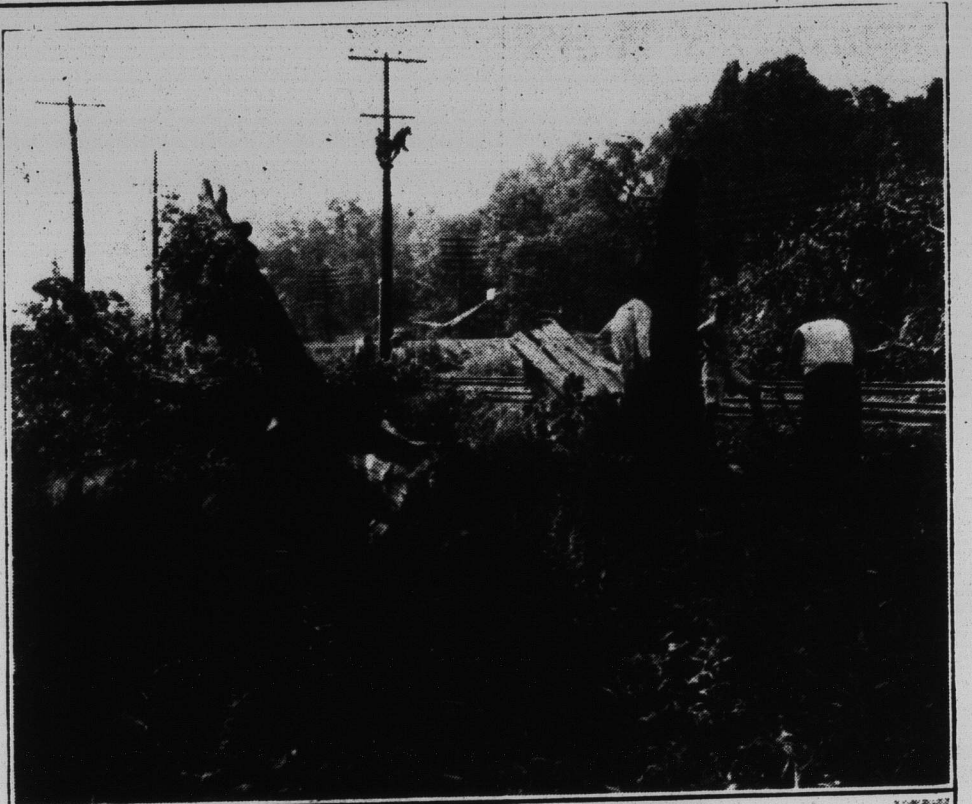

- Paris
- La Mode
- by Stroock

A more luxurious, silky camel's hair that raises the casual coat to new heights of chic and wearability! It makes the ideal coat for school, for town, travel, country and wherever else a casual coat may be worn. We've done it in unfurred swaggers from $45, and . . . special August prices, please note!

Have You Seen Our New Fur
Department at Evanston?

THE MORNING AFTER

Staff Photos
These three pictures were snapped, Monday morning, as Wilmette citizens were busy clearing away after the havoc created by Sunday night's baby tornado. In the top picture, workmen repair the overhead wires broken when a tree fell across the tracks of the North Shore line north of the Elmwood avenue crossing, interrupting service for some time. The second picture shows the damage to the front porch done to the William Alger home, 707 Central avenue, while the third photo gives a glimpse of the home of the Floyd Voltz family, 1211 Twenty-Third street, almost buried beneath the broken bough of the great tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Corper of 1126 Ashland avenue spent several days last week at the Lawsonia hotel, Green Lake, Wis.

Mrs. H. G. Vance with Donald, Sheldon, and Pearl Renee, 822 Park avenue, recently spent several days at Sheboygan, Wis.