

Activities in Social Circles

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Children at Arden Shore Camp Put on "One Ring" Circus

Each fortnightly group of campers foregathering at Arden Shore enjoys one big community entertainment during its stay at camp. A self-made circus was the gala event for the last group of five hundred mothers and children vacationing at the Lake Bluff haven, and it proved to be one of the most successful affairs the camp has ever conducted. Under the very capable direction of Miss Alice Moe, playground supervisor, practically every one of the 350 children in the camp took some part in the big show which occurred Tuesday evening, August 4.

All of the mothers, the Camp staff, and friends of Arden Shore from neighboring suburbs composed the audience which was seated circling the natural arena in front of the Administration building. Flood lights, assisted by a mid-summer moon, illuminated the scene. The opening parade entered the ring at 7 o'clock, led by a group of grenadiers in most military costumes contrived from crepe paper by the costume committee. They were followed by a bevy of clowns portraying present day personalities such as Mae West, Adolph Hitler, and others of note.

Every event—the Italian dancers who distributed flowers to the audience; the well trained pony ballet, the acrobats, jugglers—was announced by barkers dressed in 1890 costumes. Extra social numbers were introduced by a ring-master in full regalia.

The circus ended in traditional style with a wild west show in which cowboys and Indians fought it out fiercely until the sound of taps from a far-away bugle brought peace to the battle-field and signalled that the circus was over.

Altogether it was a very happy evening for the host of women and children to which every waking hour at the camp gives some measure of unaccustomed joy. True community spirit among the group was evidenced by the remarkable way in which this crowd of children, strangers to each other, to their environment, and in some cases to the English language, got up such a smooth performance in such a short time. Great credit, of course, must be given to the directors in charge.

Next week the final contingent of five hundred or more campers, the last of the season, will unite in presenting a Nature pageant under the direction of Mrs. Theron Colton, who for a number of years both in summer and winter, has brought an understanding of the outdoors to countless city dwellers who seek the shelter of Arden Shore.—S. OF.

Returns From Honeymoon in West

Green's Studio

Miss Ruth Marie Sicklinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Sicklinger of Chicago, became the bride of Arthur Penrose Good, son of Mrs. A. L. Good of Glencoe, on June 6. The wedding took place at the Buena Memorial Presbyterian church in Chicago. The bride wore an ivory satin gown and carried a bouquet of orchids, white roses and lilies of the valley. A reception was held in the church and a dinner followed at the Edgewater Beach hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Good took a motor trip to the Texas centennial, going from there to the Grand canyon and to the San Diego fair, driving then through California, visiting the Yosemite and Sequoia National parks, then proceeding north on the Redwood highway through Oregon and over the Columbia River highway to Glacier National park, covering in all a beautiful scenic trip of 8,000 miles. Mr. and Mrs. Good are now residing at the Linden Crest apartments in Wilmette.

Announce Guest Day Scores at North Shore

Tuesday of this week was the occasion of Ladies' Guest day at North Shore Golf club. Prizes, awarded to guests of members, went to Mrs. J. Kay for her score of 86, first low gross to Mrs. A. Moyer for a blind bogey 93; to Mrs. Van Landingham for low putts, 26.

Members, in the four classes, were awarded honors as follows: Mrs. J. H. Sidney with a score of 94 in Class A; Mrs. D. B. Earhart with 107, in Class B; Mrs. O. E. Burleen for her 113 in Class C; Mrs. N. E. Bengston for 130 in Class D. Mrs. E. T. Shildberg made a score of 28, winning the low putts event.

Play for the best nine out of 18 with one-half the regular handicap is the event for Tuesday, August 18.

"Yeth, I Yike Yelly"

By Melissa Quinn

Just a small boy
About eight or nine years of age,
Clumsily navigating about
With the help of braces and a pair of crutches.

But he was beaming with joy
Over the grand idea of having the freedom
Of the sand lot next door to the big house on the corner
Which he knew as home,
The Crippled Children's home.

Ah, dear public,
Do not feel that pang of pity
For him!
Rather the pity for yourself
Because you do not know that pride
Of having conquered such frailties as
are his;

Disclose Events of Next Few Weeks at Sunset Ridge

Mrs. G. H. Dovenmuehle of Winnetka, chairman of the golf committee at Sunset Ridge Country club, and her committee, have planned several interesting events for the next several weeks.

On Sunday, August 23, the club will hold its annual husband and wife tournament, and Tuesday, August 25, will be a regular guest day with special prizes for the guests. On Tuesday, September 1, Sunset Ridge will begin its championship matches with qualifying rounds in the four classes, A, B, C, and D, as well as a consolation flight.

A mixed foursome event was played on Thursday of last week. Mrs. Demaree and Don Smith won the guest prize with a low net of 81, and Mrs. C. M. Graham of Evanston and Don Wiley of Wilmette won the members' prize with their low net of 73.

Mrs. Dovenmuehle's golf committee included: Mrs. Gross Williams, Mrs. A. D. Herrmann, Mrs. Martin Cassell, Mrs. Carl Zepp, and Miss Mary Louise Dillon of Winnetka; Mrs. William McKee of Glencoe; Mrs. C. M. Graham and Mrs. J. E. Almond of Evanston, and Mrs. C. S. Butler and Mrs. A. J. Luick of Chicago.

And to be filled with joy because so many
Nice people care about one.

Those understanding blue, blue eyes
Gazing from out a thin, sensitive face,
Imbed themselves in one's memory
Until the thought becomes a picture.
An animated picture
Of "A Conqueror."

He smiles when introduced, saying
"I can open the gate for you
If you wish to drive your car in our yard?"
Hobbling away to perform the task that is to
Show to you that he can do things.

And believe me, you are just
As proud of his ability and technique
In putting over the job of gateman to the large grounds.

I handed him a jar of jam
For which he thanked me and smiled.
Then he turned to a smaller lad,
Showing him the jar of sweets,
And implying with a gesture
That "this is for us."

The smaller lad, without arms,
Seemed to know of a beautiful
Benefactor in the boy with the blue, blue
eyes,
For he looked up at him and said,
"Yeth, I yike yelly."

The first week in September is jelly week for the Chicago Plant, Flower, and Fruit guild. Mrs. Charles Van Deursen of 1101 Forest avenue, Wilmette, is chairman of the Milwaukee division including in its district, Wilmette, Kenilworth, Winnetka, Hubbard Woods, and Glencoe.