

Activities in Social Circles

By JEAN FOX

Civics Department Sponsors Concert to Aid Music Fund

The civics department of the Woman's Library Club of Glencoe is sponsoring the benefit concert which a group of young Glencoe musicians will give at the Glencoe Union church at 8:15 o'clock Wednesday evening, September 9. The proceeds from the concert will go towards the fund providing music for the Protestant services conducted by the Rev. Nelson Hall at the Veteran's hospital at Great Lakes.

In charge of the arrangements for the benefit are Mrs. William C. Miller, chairman of the civics department, and her assistants, Mrs. Edward A. Brion, Mrs. J. G. Wray, and Mrs. Arnold Honegger.

Victor Nelson will announce the program, and Miss Frances Orcutt will be in charge of the refreshments.

A committee of young women and young men will usher, and those serving are Miss June Barrie, Miss Norma Honneger, Miss Janet and Miss Katharine Schofield, Francis Grosse, Bill and George Murray, and Frank Putt, Jr.

Among some of the best known of the fifteen or sixteen young artists assisting on the program will be Miss Pauline Manchester, pianist. Miss Manchester has appeared with the Chicago Symphony orchestra and is an instructor in music at Ferry Hall. Miss Gertrude Smith, who will sing and play the flute, received her musical education in this country and abroad and is an instructor in the music department at Smith college.

Two of the vocalists on the program are Miss Mildred Mullen and William C. Miller, Jr. Each will sing a group of songs.

There will also be chamber music by an ensemble the members of which will be Miss Marjory Lynn, John Grant and Miss Polly Birdsall, playing the violin, Miss Becky Miller and Gilman Paynter, the cello, and David Greene, the bass viol. They will be accompanied at the piano by Miss Betty Jane Meyer.

Vocal numbers will be presented by Miss Jean Watson and Spiro Mann. Completing the program will be an accordion duet by Edward Younglove and Robert Bennett.

Garden Club to Hear Lecture on "Pools"

The next meeting of the Wilmette Garden club will be held on Friday afternoon, September 4, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Henry W. Drucker, 1125 Mohawk road. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. C. R. Bixby and Mrs. E. H. Burge. The speaker will be a representative of the Swain-Nelson Company whose subject will be "Pools." Election of officers for the ensuing year will take place at this meeting.

Sings in Concert

Miss Mildred Mullen of Glencoe, coloratura soprano, will be one of a group of young musicians appearing in the benefit concert at the Glencoe Union church Wednesday evening, September 9. Miss Mullen, a student at DePaul university, is now studying with Mrs. Ernest Byfield of Highland Park.

Prepare for College After Season at Geneva

The Walter G. McIntosh family of 1100 Greenwood avenue returned to Wilmette Saturday, having spent the summer at their summer home on Lake Geneva. They have not closed their Lake Geneva home for the season as they plan to go up on weekends for several weeks to come. Miss Jean McIntosh returned to Lake Geneva on Wednesday of last week from a trip to Alaska with Dr. and Mrs. Elmer Pwyman and their daughter, Nellie, of Kansas City. Miss Pwyman plans to enter Northwestern university at the beginning of the fall term with Miss Eunice McIntosh, who will be a freshman. Miss Jean will start her junior year at Northwestern this month, and her brother, Walter, will attend Northwestern Military and Naval academy at Lake Geneva.

Announce Marriage of Norberta McSweeney

At Holy Name Cathedral at 11 o'clock Monday morning Miss Norberta Marie McSweeney was married to Aloysius M. DuPont. Miss McSweeney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. McSweeney of 7455 North Hoyne avenue, Chicago. Until recently the McSweeneys lived at 2038 Kenilworth avenue, Wilmette. Mr. McSweeney is superintendent of freight transportation for the Pennsylvania Railroad, with headquarters in Chicago. Mr. DuPont is the son of Mrs. Louise DuPont of 2200 Granville avenue, Chicago.

Sunset Ridge Children Have Labor Day Party

The children of Sunset Ridge Country club will observe the Labor day holiday with a party which is to start at 2:30 Monday afternoon, terminating in supper, at which there will be a special children's table. Bobo, the famous clown, will come to the club to amuse the youngsters, and further entertainment will be provided by a trick monkey. Races and a pie-eating contest will be features of the afternoon, and there will be a number of Shetland ponies for the children to ride. Mrs. Alfred Roulet of Glencoe has charge of the party.

The bridge chairman, Mrs. Arthur Taylor of Chicago, has moved the regular bridge afternoon for the Sunset Ridge women from Saturday up to Labor day, and the men of the club will have special golf events on the holiday.

The women played the qualifying round for the club championship Tuesday, low gross prizes being awarded as follows: Class A, Miss Virginia Ingram of Winnetka; Class B, Mrs. C. S. Butler of Chicago; Class C, Mrs. John Champion of Evanston; and Class D, Mrs. G. A. Brown of Chicago. Medal play started Wednesday, and is continuing through Thursday and Friday.

Beach Supper

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Johnson, 810 Michigan avenue, entertained forty guests at a beach supper a week ago Wednesday evening. They were the members of the swimming committee of the Hamilton club.

Announce Marriage

Kaufmann & Fabry Photo
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. McSweeney of Chicago, formerly of Wilmette, announce the marriage of their daughter, Norberta Marie, to Aloysius M. DuPont, son of Mrs. Louise DuPont of Chicago, on Monday, August 31, at Holy Name Cathedral.

Opera Committee Will Hold Next Tea in Glencoe

Mrs. Dwight Orcutt, Glencoe chairman of the Chicago City Opera committee, will open her home at 786 Greenleaf avenue Monday afternoon, for the weekly tea for the north shore members of the opera committee.

More than 100 workers, the largest group yet assembled at one of these affairs, attended this week's meeting, held Monday at the home of Mrs. Lewis Cohen, in Highland Park. Vivian della Chiesa, young NBC radio star who is to make her operatic debut this fall with the City Opera company, as Mimi, in "La Boheme," sang at this tea, with Dino Bagalli as her accompanist.

Mrs. Jacob Baur came out from Chicago to give one of the talks of the afternoon. Jason Whitney, president of the company, Olga Menn, and Dudley Crafts Watson were other speakers. Mr. Watson emphasizing, in his talk, the advantages of the new opera house.

Noted at the tea were many women well known in both musical and social circles, among them Mrs. J. Hamilton Lewis, Mrs. William Yager, and Mrs. Townsend McKeever, of Chicago; Mrs. Arthur F. Byfield, Mrs. Frank Sincere, and Mrs. Harold van Steederen, of Highland Park; and the Winnetka chairman, Mrs. H. Norman Copthorne, and Mrs. George R. Quin and Mrs. A. Younker, of Winnetka.

Janet Minor to Visit Here on Way to School

Miss Janet Minor, daughter of the M. Le Roy Minors of Beverly Hills, Calif., formerly of Wilmette, is entering Wellesley college this fall as a freshman. She was graduated last June from the Westlake School for Girls, Los Angeles, and was accepted by Wellesley without college board examinations.

She will arrive Sunday on her way east and will spend ten days as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Workman, 222 Leicester road, Kenilworth. Harvey Minor returns to Leland Stanford university for his junior year, where he is junior track manager and plays in the band.

The Minors are building an early California home in Encino, Calif., into which they will move about Thanksgiving time.

Sew for Arden Shore

The Wilmette board of Arden Shore will hold an all-day sewing meeting commencing at 10 o'clock in the morning at the home of Mrs. Percy B. Idler, 932 Ashland avenue, on Thursday, September 10. With the closing of the summer camp at Arden Shore, preparations are now being made for the winter camp, and those who meet next week will sew for the winter camp session.