AS THOUSANDS WERE THRILLED

A crowd of spectators, estimated at 30,000, thronged the boundaries of the Sky Harbor airport landing field, and the surrounding area, near Northbrook, last Sunday, to view the air show presented by the "National Air Accs."

Staff Photos

Other events included spiral dives, inverted acrobatics, soaring plane demonstrations, dog fight, looping glider, "How Not to Fly," and a 10,000 foot delayed drop.

Thresholders Offer "To Have the Honor"

"Well, if you don't do anything for a living, I suppose you are a Prince," she said, and he, abstractedly gazing into the rich blue sky, carelessly answered "Yes," thus bringing into life an identity for which he has to provide not only a title, but a country, its history and its customs. How the Prince does this and claims his lady fair is one of the bright spots of A. A. Milne's amusing comedy, "To Have the Honor," which will be presented by the Threshold Players Friday evening, October 23, at the Central school auditorium at Glencoe. The comedy has been unusually well cast, with such players as Frank Morré, Theo Huguenin and J. Lincoln Gibson playing important roles.

BIRTHDAY CLUB MEETS

The Birthday club was entertained by Mrs. Clifford Ives of Wilmette at luncheon at Indian Trail Tea room Tuesday of last week and at bridge following at the hostess' home. Mrs. A. G. Ackermann was guest of honor.

C. F. Henning Fatally Injured in Accident

Funeral services for Charles Francis Henning, 55 years old, 909 Sheridan road, Glencoe, who was fatally injured in an automobile accident Thursday evening of last week, and who passed away on Saturday at the Highland Park hospital, were held on Monday afternoon at his late residence, with burial at Rosehill cemetery.

The accident occurred when Mr. and Mrs. Henning were driving north on Skokie highway, near Deerfield. Their automobile ran out of gasoline and Mr. Henning alighted and stood in front of the car's headlights, hoping to attract a passing motorist. A few minutes later an automobile driven by Peter Lanners of Lake Forest rammed into the rear of the Henning car, catapulting it on Mr. Henning.

Mr. Henning, who was a vice-president and director of the United States Gypsum corporation, is survived, besides his widow, by two daughters, Mrs. Adam Cornelius, Jr., of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mrs. Percival Hunter of Niles Center.

HAVE HOUSE GUEST

Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Zander, Jr., of 736 Cummings avenue, Kenilworth, have as their house guest this week Mrs. Dana Latham of Los Angeles. Dr. Otto Marsh of San Diego visited Mr. and Mrs. Zander last week.

Lake Shore Opera Players to Offer "Robin Hood" Soon

DeKoven's popular light opera "Robin Hood," has been selected by the Lake Shore Opera Players as the first production of their fourth season. The opera will be given in the Orrington school auditorium, Evanston, on three successive nights, November 19, 20, and 21.

"Robin Hood" has been a favorite of American audiences for several generations and its familiar characters of Robin Hood, Friar Tuck, the Sheriff of Nottingham, Alan-A-Dale, and Maid Marion, have come to occupy a prominent position among our legendary heroes. The arias from "Robin Hood," such as "Oh Promise Me," "Brown October Ale," and the "Armorer's Song" are probably sung more frequently than those of any other opera.

Promise Outstanding Cast

An outstanding cast of amateur and professional talent will carry the difficult leading roles, supported by a chorus of more than fifty talented young men and women who have been recruited from Evanston church choirs, choral societies, and music schools.

The entire production is under the personal direction of Howard Tooley, director for the Redpath Lyceum Circuit, and Radio Station WLS.

Membership Open

Membership in the Lake Shore Opera Players is open to any resident of the north shore, who is interested in singing or who is qualified to play in an orchestra. A few more men and women can be accommodated in the chorus, and any with exceptionally fine voices or dramatic talent may try out for principal parts or understudies. New members may secure application blanks from the membership committee chairman, Miss Florence Holtz, 2211 Forest View road, Evanston, phone University 5169. Rehearsals are being held every Monday and Wednesday evening at 7:45 in the Orrington school auditorium.

The complete cast has not been selected, but will be announced very shortly.

Coleman Clark, Table Tennis Star, in Films

North shore table tennis fans will not want to miss the first movie short devoted to table tennis, featuring Coleman Clark of Winnetka, at the Wilmette theater October 13 and 14.

Coleman Clark fully justifies the faith put in him by MGM when they selected him to star in this production. His repertoire of "trick shots" and amazing control make this film fascinating to both players and non-players of this popular sport.

Not the least important feature of this film is the clever use of slow motion which explains as no other medium can the workings of spin. Narration is by Pete Smith whose witty comments have enlivened a long series of sports shorts.

SURPRISE PARTY

Miss Janann Fleming of 782 Glencoe road, Glencoe, and Miss Betty Baker of 212 Center street, Winnetka, were hostesses to eighteen guests at a surprise dinner party in Miss Fleming's home last Friday evening in honor of Miss Mickey Small of 304 Cumnor road, Kenilworth, who celebrated her fifteenth birthday anniversary that day.
