

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

First Presbyterian

Ninth street at Greenleaf avenue
James T. Veneklasen, minister

Our morning worship service is held at 11 o'clock. The guest speaker Sunday will be the Rev. H. S. Randolph, D.D., superintendent of the Asheville, N. C., Farm school. He has a most fascinating story of a mission school for boys, which mingles education, farming, trade-apprenticeship with religious training, thus developing all around character in these mountain lads who come from the underprivileged areas. Last year's record was that 98% of the enrollment became professing Christians. Dr. Randolph is the modest, but efficient head of this work. We invite you to worship with us and hear this interesting story.

The music for morning worship service will be as follows: prelude: "Nocturne" (E flat major) Chopin; anthem, "Rock of Ages," Buck; solo, "Consider and Hear Me," Wooler, Edward Otis, soloist; postlude, "Postlude in A," Mendelssohn. Miss Erma Rounds is director.

Junior church will care for the little children during the morning worship service, under the supervision of Mrs. Wagner.

Our Sunday school meets at 9:30 o'clock in all departments.

Our Adult Bible class meets at 10 o'clock for the study of a series of lessons on "Portraits of Jesus." We are now studying the "Portrait of a Carpenter." We invite you to join us.

The Tuxis club, the high school group, will meet at 5:30 o'clock. Lowell Peterson will lead the meeting with the topic, "Christ-likeness—Being Generous." All the young people are invited.

The Sunday Evening club of New Trier will present Maxwell Stewart, associate editor of "The Nation," in a lecture on "Spain in Revolution," by an Eye Witness.

The Presbytery of Chicago will meet Monday at 10 o'clock in the First Church of Oak Park.

The session will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the church.

The Boy Scouts will meet Monday evening at the church.

On Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock there will be a special meeting of the congregation to consider the recommendation of the board of trustees to make another advance in the building program of the church. All the members of the church should be present to consider this important matter. The future of the church is deeply involved in this move.

The Chicago Presbyterian society will meet Friday at 11 o'clock at the First church of Evanston. There will be a fine program of addresses by missionaries home on furlough. Reservations for the lunch must be made with Mrs. R. H. Rice by Tuesday morning.

On Friday evening at the First church of Evanston there will be a conference of lay officers of the church—elders, deacons, trustees, women's societies, men's clubs, young people's groups—on the question of missions, and its relations to the local church. The conference is at 8 o'clock.

The Girl Scouts meet Wednesday evening at the church.

The choir will rehearse Friday evening at the church.

St. Augustine's

Dr. Hubert Carleton, rector.

Sunday, November 1, will be All Saints' Day, the day set apart by the historic church as holy memorial day of all those who have gone before and have not been otherwise specially remembered. There will be Holy Communion at 8 a.m.; Church school and Bible classes at 9:45, and Holy Communion with sermon at 11 a.m.

Next Sunday being the first Sunday of the month, the members of the Boys' and Girls' Communion leagues will make their communion at either the 8 or 11 o'clock services.

The Woman's Guild has its next meeting in the Parish House on the second Friday in the month, November 13.

The beautiful flowers on the altar last Sunday were given by the Girls' choir in memory of their former leader, Mrs. Winifred Mickey Von Meding.

The speaker at the Sunday Evening club meeting next Sunday at the New Trier High school auditorium will be Maxwell S. Stewart, associate editor of "Nation," on "Spain in Revolution," by an Eyewitness.

Wilmette Baptist

Wilmette and Forest avenues
Rev. George D. Allison, pastor

This church is heartily cooperating in the Chicagoland Preaching Mission, November 19 to 22, when a large group of outstanding Christian leaders will bring challenging messages to this area. All members are urged to participate as fully as possible. There will be a local preaching mission in our own church November 30 to December 4, at which time a group of missionaries will visit here.

The Sunday morning classes of the church meet for study at 10 o'clock, where provision is made for all ages. The worship service at 11 o'clock is integrated to the study groups, and all are expected to remain throughout. Little children are cared for during sermon time. On Sunday morning Dr. Allison continues his Isaiah sermons with a message entitled, "Optimist, Pessimist, Meliorist." There will be an observance of the Holy Communion to close.

Tomorrow (Friday) there will be five group luncheons of links in our chain of friendship. Link R, Mrs. Clarence Clarke, leader, will be guests of Mrs. W. A. Hartwig, 1700 Walnut avenue. Link I, Mrs. E. H. Kerr, leader, will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Guthridge, 917 Greenwood avenue. Link E, Mrs. R. J. Lascelles, leader, will meet with Mrs. A. V. Gruhn, 953 Ramona road. Link N, Mrs. John M. Davis, leader, will be guests of Mrs. C. H. Jones and Mrs. Ellen Storm at 1514 Forest avenue. Link D, Mrs. H. A. Smith, leader, meets with Mrs. A. E. Gebert, 1526 Greenwood avenue, with Mrs. Kirtley assisting. Link F met last week.

This is Girl Scout Week. Our troop meets Thursday afternoons under the leadership of Mrs. Alfred Heerens and Mrs. Robert Wolff. This church is happy to house the office of the Wilmette Girl Scouts, with Miss Florence Marcell as the efficient executive-secretary.

The Church school will have another of its enjoyable parties on Friday November 6, with lots to interest both young and old. We are happy in having so many loyal teachers and scholars.

New members have been numerous this fall, but there is always room for more. Parents are reminded of the Pastor's Bible class which meets on Sunday mornings at 10 and which fosters social fellowship and helps in all good works.

On Friday, November 6, there will be the Fall Banquet of the Chicago Baptist Social Union at the Oak Park church. Tickets may be had of Mrs. H. J. Dernehl. Reservations must be made for this fine dinner and rally.

Dr. Allison is expected to return tomorrow (Friday) from his duties at the New Jersey Baptist Anniversaries, where he has been delivering five addresses in their Atlantic City convention. His first pastorate was in New Jersey from 1910 to 1920, at the Rutherford Baptist church.
