

Weddings + Engagements + Notices

By JEAN TEN BROECK

T. E. Snyder, Jr., and His Bride Go East on Honeymoon

Thomas Ewing Snyder, Jr., of Evanston and his bride, the former Betty Louise McKay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert George McKay of 823 Chestnut avenue, are in the east and New York on their wedding trip following their marriage, Saturday, in Christ church in Winnetka. After their honeymoon, the young couple will be at home in Carlisle, Pa.

The ceremony was performed before a setting of green and white, with cathedral candles, large bouquets of white chrysanthemums and ferns decorating the altar and choir stalls. The bride wore an empire wedding dress of white satin trimmed at the neck and down the front with two bands of seed pearls. Her tulle veil was caught in a cap of duchesse lace, and she carried a spray of lilies of the valley and white orchids.

The dresses of the bride's seven attendants, made on empire lines with buttons down the front and puffed sleeves, were of moiré in robbin's egg blue and bright dubonnet. Mrs. Elmer Rich, III, the matron of honor, was in dubonnet moiré with dubonnet velvet hat and dubonnet shoes. She carried a spray of chrysanthemums shading from the reds into light yellow.

With their moiré dresses of robin's egg blue the bridesmaids wore small dubonnet velvet hats similar to that of the matron of honor, and carried sprays of dubonnet red chrysanthemums. In this group of six attendants were Miss Margaret Bayliss of Philadelphia, Mrs. Donald Morrison of Chicago, Mrs. David Van Vactor of Evanston, Mrs. William Howard Lang of Evanston, Miss Mary Jane Randall of Chicago, and Mrs. John T. Snite of Kenilworth.

Mrs. McKay, the bride's mother, was in blue and silver lamé with a shoulder bouquet of white orchids, while Mrs. Snyder wore a gown of wine crepe with sequin jacket and corsage of lavender orchids.

Wizner Fisher served Mr. Snyder as best man, and ushering were Tom Carpenter of New York and Henry Cannon of Wilmington, Del., classmates of the bridegroom at Princeton; Robert McKay, Jr., brother of the bride; James Rankin Getz, William Howard Lang, and Donald Morrison.

The Exmoor Country club, where the bride and bridegroom and their parents received about three hundred guests before a screen of ferns and large bouquets of chrysanthemums, was gayly decorated in bright fall colors. Following the reception a wedding supper was served and there was dancing in the ballroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Zander are giving a cocktail party in their home at 736 Cummings avenue, Kenilworth, before the Kenilworth club dinner dance on Friday evening.

Will Make Her Home in East

In an empire dress of white satin trimmed with bands of seed pearls, with a cap of duchesse lace attached to her veil of tulle, and carrying a spray of lilies of the valley and white orchids, Miss Betty Louise McKay of Wilmette was married to Thomas Ewing Snyder, Jr., of Evanston last Saturday. Their home will be in Carlisle, Pa.

Former Winnetka Girl's Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. O'Brien of 2244 Lincoln Park West, Chicago, formerly of Winnetka, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Josephine Ann, to Albert L. Mahone, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Mahone of Park Ridge. Miss O'Brien is a graduate of Northwestern university, where she was a member of Delta Gamma sorority. Mr. Mahone is a graduate of Armour Institute of Technology. The wedding will probably take place next spring.

Guests of Spoke Ten

Mrs. Fiske of Santa Fe, N. M., and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rogers Fiske of Wilmette, and Mrs. Nelson Joyce of Wilmette and her mother, who is visiting her from Canada, will be guests of Spoke Ten of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Milton R. Barker, 730 Central avenue, at 1 o'clock. Mrs. R. G. Brown is assisting hostess for the meeting.

Is Hostess to College Friends Here for Wedding

Miss Betty Mulford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert B. Mulford, 835 Elmwood avenue, had as her house guests the past week-end two of the bridesmaids in the wedding party of Miss Marian Louise Page whose marriage to William McNeill Clough of Dallas, Texas, took place on Saturday. Miss Mulford was also a bridesmaid in the wedding. Mrs. Paul Bachman arrived Thursday from Nashville, Tenn., and was a guest at the Mulford home until Sunday. Miss Jean Donnelly of Newcastle, Pa., was with the Mulfords from Friday until Sunday, spending part of her time with the Pages and part with other friends in Evanston. These three bridesmaids, as well as the bride, were college friends at Wellesley.

Mr. and Mrs. William M. Riach, Jr., of 418 Central avenue announce the engagement of their niece, Miss Duane Strom, to James Geissler of Evanston. The wedding is planned for late spring.

Marjorie Odegard Names Attendants in Wedding Party

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Jane Odegard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alfred Odegard of Evanston, formerly of Glencoe, to Charles Emerson Carey, Jr., of Evanston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emerson Carey of Hutchinson, Kas., will take place Tuesday evening, December 22, in the Glencoe Union church at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

After the ceremony, at which Dr. Douglas Cornell will officiate, a reception will take place at the Evanston Woman's club.

One cousin of the bride, Mrs. C. David Elling of Chicago, will be matron of honor, another, Miss Ruth Odegard of Beverly Hills, Calif., will be maid of honor. The bridesmaids will include Miss Louise Hebert of Chicago, Miss Constance Carey of Hutchinson, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Margaret Ann Fleming of Hamburg, N. Y., Miss Frances Trainer of Detroit, Miss Virginia Lee Graham and Miss Jean Allen, both of Evanston.

Serving Mr. Carey as best man will be George Hollenbeck of Rochester, Minn. The ushers are to be Howard J. Engquist, Jr., of Chicago, Charles Odegard, brother of the bride, James Carey of Hutchinson, the bridegroom's brother, John Rose, Elmer Blume, and Robert Stackhouse, all of Evanston, and Earl Kirk of Hutchinson.

Friends Entertain in Honor of Bride-to-Be

Miss Palmya Lee Burpee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Burpee, 815 Linden avenue, is being entertained at a number of showers before her marriage on Saturday, November 28, to Donald E. Hall of Wilmette. This evening (Thursday) Miss Virginia Davis of Evanston will be hostess at a lingerie shower in honor of the bride. Mrs. Elmer D. Becker of 519 Linden avenue gave a kitchen shower at her home Tuesday evening of last week, and October 30 Mrs. O. E. Thaleg of 617 Greenleaf avenue and her daughter, Mrs. William Bates (Mary Thaleg), were co-hostesses at a shower at Mrs. Bates' home in Chicago.

Entertain Before Dance

Mr. and Mrs. Weston Davie will give a large cocktail party in their home at 740 Maclean avenue, Kenilworth, before the dinner dance at the Kenilworth club on Friday evening. Mrs. Davie with her small daughter, Eleanor, flew to Chicago on Wednesday from New York where she had spent about ten days visiting relatives.