

Winnetka Leads In Permit List for Past Month

(Continued from Page 63)

1150 Wilmette avenue, Wilmette, is the architect. E. Peterson, of Chicago has the masonry contract and John E. Olson and Co., of Chicago, are the carpenters.

Dr. Willard N. McEwen took out a permit for a two-story brick veneer and frame residence at 631 Melrose avenue, costing $8,000. Perkins, Wheeler and Hill, 333 North Michigan avenue, Chicago, are the architects and the Public Realty Co., 2445 Devon avenue, Chicago, builders.

Permits for remodeling jobs were issued to A. W. Wigglesworth, 125 Woodstock avenue, $1,700; Leslie Dodds, 428 Cumnor road, $5,000; Howard Schaeffer, 212 Raleigh road, $1,000; J. Barcus, 306 Woodstock avenue, $225; F. W. Katcham, 40 Devonshire lane, $4,000.

The garage, with chauffeur's quarters above, is being built by John W. Ladd, at 257 Woodstock avenue. The estimated cost is $3,600.

One in November

One permit was issued in Kenilworth during the first 17 days of November. It was for a new two-story, 7-room brick veneer residence, with attached one car garage, which George R. Dodge is building at 377 Ridge road. The cost is $15,000. H. Ring Clauson and associates, 180 North Michigan avenue, Chicago, are architects and Joe Mageskey, 2026 Noyes street, Evanston, the builder. Joe Braun, Illinois road, Wilmette, has the masonry contract; Commonwealth Plumbing company, 5612 Northwestern avenue, Chicago, is doing the plumbing, and Maurice Bond, 896 Linden avenue, Hubbard Woods, has the contract for the electrical work.

Winnetka

Twelve building permits for improvements totaling $133,610 were issued in Winnetka during the month of October. Six of the permits were for new residences costing $121,000; three for remodeling jobs, $3,950; one for a commercial building, $5,000; one for a private greenhouse, $4,200, and one for a garage, $360.

A two-story solid brick residence of eight rooms and built-in two-car garage is being erected by Lewis C. Murtaugh, at 220 deWindt road, at a cost of $22,000. Olsen and Urbain, 228 North LaSalle street, Chicago, are the architects and John Anderson and Sons Co., 5216 North Damen avenue, Chicago, have the masonry contract.

Harry T. Kransz took out a permit for two and one-half story solid brick, concrete and frame residence of nine rooms and built-in two-car garage at 345 White Oak lane, costing $30,000. Olsen and Urbain, 228 North LaSalle street, Chicago, are the architects, and

FINE HOME BUILT IN COUNTRY-LIKE SETTING

This residence for Lewis C. Murtaugh is located at the corner of deWindt road and Sunset lane, Winnetka, two private ways which, with White Oak lane comprise over a mile of highly restricted countrylike private lanes. Along these lanes, are located some of the finest homes on the north shore. Olsen & Urbain, architects.

Joseph Carp, 1791 Howard street, Chicago, the builder.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Randall are building a two-story solid brick residence of eleven rooms and built-in two-car garage at 700 Blackthorn road, costing $35,000. Ralph E. Stoetzel, 612 North Michigan avenue, Chicago, is the architect and Edward A. Anderson & Co., 545 Lincoln avenue, Winnetka, builders.

Noble T. MacFarlane is building at 681 Walden road. It is a two-story frame building with attached two-car garage. The estimated cost is $16,500. Ernst A. Benkert, 746 Elm street, Winnetka, is the architect and Adolph E. Salmen, 5136 Brummel street, Niles Center, the builder.

A permit was issued to John Belmont for a one and one-half story brick veneer residence at 1093 Ash street, costing $6,000. Martin H. Braun is the architect and Frank Kristof builder.

Builds $11,500 Home

W. Lindsay Suter is building a two-story brick veneer and shingle side residence with attached two-car garage, at 338 Locust road, costing $11,500. Mr. Suter is the architect and builder.

Permits for remodeling work were issued to Josephine Flynn, 921 Ash street, $300; W. S. Elliott, 650 Blackthorn road,

$2,500; Adolor J. Petit Jr., 571 Hill terrace, $250.

John M. Mitchell took out a permit for a brick and frame commercial building at 901-05 Linden avenue, costing $5,000. Perkins, Wheeler & Will, 333 North Michigan avenue, Chicago, are architects and Oscar Johnson is the builder.

Max Epstein is building a private greenhouse at 915 Sheridan road, costing $4,200.

The permit for a private garage, costing $360, was issued to Charles F. Devine, 337 Cedar street.

November Permits

The first seventeen days of November witnessed the issuance of 9 building permits in Winnetka, two of which were for new residences; five for alteration jobs and two for private garages.

One of the new residences, a two story brick veneer, is being built by A. Franco, at 1066 Oak street. The estimated cost is $8,000. Chester A. Walcott, 75 East Wacker drive, Chicago, is the architect; Robert Mitchell, carpenter, and Harold Dahl, mason.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony L. Michel took out a permit for a residence, 1170 Oakley avenue. It is two stories, of solid brick construction and will have a built-in two-car garage. Perkins, Wheeler & Will, 333 North Michigan avenue, Chicago, are architects; Bjorglund & Peterson, Chicago, carpenters, and Paul Jansen, Chicago, are doing the masonry work.

Permits for remodeling jobs were issued to Hugo Layer, 436 Linden street, $700; J. E. Freeman, 185 Chestnut street, $500; Mrs. D. B. Earhart, 992 Pine street, $1,100; Dr. Harold A. Ramser, 372 Hawthorn lane, $2,500; Edwin T. Maynard, 969 Hill road, $1,200.

The permit for the one-car garage, costing $300, was issued to A. Franco, 1066 Oak street.

Glencoe

Five building permits, two for new residences, two for remodeling jobs and one for a private garage, were issued in Glencoe in October. The total value of the improvements was $35,600.

C. C. Bennet is building one of the new residences at 930 Skokie Ridge drive. It is two stories, of frame and brick, and the estimated cost is $18,000. J. H. Melstrom, of Chicago, is the architect and Erland Peterson, also of Chicago, is the general contractor.

The other new residence permit was issued to Joseph A. Powers who is building at 420 Sunset lane. Robert Seyfarth, of Chicago, is the architect and Edward Peterson, 555 Provident avenue, Winnetka, the contractor. The cost is $16,000.

Permits for remodeling jobs were issued to Mrs. Margaret Imbusch, 110 Euclid avenue, $450, and to C. F. Pierce, 847 Valley road, $1,000.

Harry S. Norton took out a permit for a one-car frame garage, at 508 Drexel avenue, costing $150.

November Better

Four permits, all for new residences, were issued in Glencoe, during the first 17 days of November.

E. H. Ravenscroft is building a two story brick veneer, at 675 Valley street, costing $18,000. Shattuck & Laver, Chicago, are the architects, and A. Anderson, 7301 North Keating avenue, Chicago, general contractor.

Ernst A. Benkert, 746 Elm street, Winnetka, is the architect for a two story brick veneer residence which Mrs. Catherine B. Arnheim is building at 527 Greenleaf avenue, at an estimated cost of $24,000. Power Construction company, 212 South Main street, Oak Park, are general contractors.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Larrabee took out a permit for a two story frame residence at 604 Skokie lane, south, costing $14,800. Beresford Beck, 307 North Michigan avenue, Chicago, is the architect, and Sheffield Construction and Engineering company, 307 North Michigan avenue, Chicago, general contractors.

A permit was issued to Harold W. McKenzie for a two story brick veneer residence at 144 Green Bay road, costing $15,400. J. H. Melstrom, 3136 Cambridge avenue, Chicago, is the architect. Erland Peterson, 6133 School street, Chicago, is the mason contractor.

NEW RESIDENCE IN DAUGHADAY ACRES

Edward M. Bullard's new home on deWindt road in Daughaday Acres, Winnetka, has just been completed, designed by Anderson and Ticknor, architects. It is a lovely prospect at the bend in deWindt road, Daughaday acres, of an early American home.