

LIBRARY

New Books on Shelves Are Listed by Librarian; May Be Reserved

The following books have just been placed on the shelves of the Wilmette public library, it was announced this week by Miss Ann Whitmack, librarian. Reserves may be placed for any book that the library owns, she added.

Adamic—Cradle of Life.
Flandrau—Under the Sun.
Frankau—Farewell Romance.
Hull—Candle Indoors.
Hurst—Great Laughter.
McIntyre—Steps Going Down.
Mann—Joseph and His Brethren.
Parrish—Golden Wedding.
Walpole—Prayer for My Son.

NON-FICTION

Seabury—How to Worry Successfully.
Baillie—Making of a Man.
Lasswell—Politics.
Bode—Modern Educational Theories.
Langford—Education and the Social Conflict.
Counts—Social Foundations of Education.
Coulter—Story of the Plant Kingdom.
Sherbon—The Child.
Brett—Air Conditioning.
Levitas—Printing and Typography for Beginners.
Van Cleve—Hand Loom Weaving.
Russell—Art Training Through Home Problems.
Wengroth—Making a Lithograph.
Cole—Perspective.
Mather—Venetian Painters.
Porter—Etching and Drypoint.
Charles—Commercial Photography.
Finck—Fifty Mastersongs by Twenty Composers.
Finck—Thirty Sterling Songs.
Dunlap—Talking on the Radio.
Settings and Costumes for the Modern Stage.
Nicoll—English Theatre.
Vare—Last Empress.
Van Doren—Three Worlds.
Defoe—Journal of the Plague Year.
Mahan—Influence of Sea Power upon History.

NEW REFERENCE BOOKS

Dameron—Bibliography of Stage Settings.
Taylor—Garden Dictionary.
Rous—Victrola Book of the Opera.

OUTSTANDING FRENCH NOVELS

Bloch—"—and Co." The conflict between the individual and the family in the days of the industrial expansion.
Chamson—The Road. The story of French peasant life.
Fauconnier—Malaisie. French planters among the Malays.
Fournier—The Wanderer. A quiet story of French life.
France—Revolt of the Angels. A witty satire.
Henriot—Aricie Brun. A French middle class family in Bordeaux.
Malraux—Man's Fate. Two days in the Chinese revolution seen through the revolutionary's eyes.
Proust—Remembrance of Things Past. A story of little things in modern society.
Rolland—Soul Enchanted.
Romain—Men of Good Will. A cross section of Paris.
Saint-Exupéry—Night Flight. A beautiful story of the South American air mails.
Schlumberger—Saint Saturnin. The drama of an old man's mental decay.

HONORED AT DEPAUW

Elizabeth Phillips of Wilmette was recently initiated into Phi Sigma Iota, national romance language honorary fraternity at DePauw university, the school announces. The members of the local chapter, founded at the university in 1930, are chosen by the departmental faculty on the basis of superiority in scholarship and interest in romance languages. The purpose of the organization is to arouse a deeper interest and to encourage further research in romance languages.

TOGETHER FOR HOLIDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Craig of 716 Lake avenue returned to Wilmette on Wednesday from a week's trip to Hot Springs, Ark. Their son, Roger, who is attending the Cranbrook school near Bloomfield Hills, Mich., and their daughter, Daphne, a student at the Kingswood school, are home for their Thanksgiving holiday.

HAS HOLIDAY AT HOME

Ted Hoskings of 818 Park avenue is home from the University of Illinois to spend his Thanksgiving vacation with his father, Richard T. Hoskings, Mrs. Hoskings is in Avon Park, Fla., having been called there last week by the death of her brother-in-law, R. H. Stodden. She expects to be with Mrs. Stodden for about a month.

Patronize Our Advertisers

Distributor of Hart and Timken Silent Automatic Equipment
DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE — ALL MAKES

JACK SLOWN CO.

OIL BURNERS — AIR CONDITIONING

1141 Greenleaf Ave., Wilmette

Phone Wilmette 221

Serving the North Shore for Twenty-five Years

FIRST MORTGAGE LOANS

On Modern, Owner-occupied Residence Property

Very Favorable Terms and Interest Rates

★ NO COMMISSION ★

Made Direct With

JOHN HANCOCK

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Through K. W. Parkinson, Loan Agent

208 S. LaSalle St., Chicago

STate 5638

WINNETKA ROAD ACRES

New Restricted Subdivision

in

SUNSET RIDGE SECTION

One-half mile to Skokie Valley Electric

Winnetka City Water

Gas and Electricity

NO ASSESSMENTS

One $25,000 Home Already Started

HOKANSON & JENKS, INC.

Phone

GREenleaf 1617

W. NELSON PLAMONDON

Phone

Winnetka 1983