It was explained that in the coming village election, a president, clerk, treasurer and six trustees will be elected. The president and clerk will be elected for a term of four years instead of the two years as has been the custom in the past, and the six trustees will draw lots to determine which three shall serve two years and which three shall serve four years. The village treasurer will be elected for a term of two years.

Unless otherwise determined by referendum, all village officials in the future, with the exception of the treasurer, will be elected for a term of four years.

Arthur Meeker, Jr., to Address Writers' Guild

Arthur Meeker, Jr., will be the luncheon speaker at the meeting of the North Shore Writers' Guild in the Georgian hotel in Evanston, Tuesday, February 9. Mr. Meeker's latest book, "Sacrifices to the Graces," has been enthusiastically received by the critics.

At the meeting of the guild last week, Miss Mary McEldowney gave an interesting and amusing account of the life of the woman student at the famous English university, Oxford. There was a time when only the bluestocking dared invade this masculine stronghold of learning, but now, according to Miss McEldowney, a new and more frivolous group have discovered the social possibilities of an institution where the men outnumber the women approximately ten to one. Entrance requirements are still more rigid for women than for the opposite sex, however, and the girls attending Oxford must be on the bright side, mentally.

Miss McEldowney is a graduate of Knox college and went to Oxford on a fellowship.
