

Card Party Will Aid These Children

Children like these six boys from the Lake Bluff orphanage will benefit from the card party, fashion show, and book review which the friends of Lake Bluff Orphanage will hold at the Evanston Woman's club on Wednesday afternoon, March 3. This newly organized group has already contributed substantial sums to the refurnishing and redecorating of the institution buildings, and expects to make possible many additional improvements with the sum realized on this large affair.

Lutheran Ladies Aid Meets Today; Lists Circle Days

The Ladies' Aid society of St. John's Lutheran church will hold its monthly meeting Thursday, February 4, at 2 o'clock at the church. The society announces the complete list of circle meetings for the month of February. They are as follows:

February 8, the Young Mother's circle, 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. A. Austin, 204 Wood Court.

February 9, the Evening circle, 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. George F. Simons, 234 Seventeenth street.

February 11, the Children's circle, 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. W. Zibble, 1225 Washington avenue.

February 12, the Winnetka circle, 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. C. Anderson, 927 Cherry street, Winnetka.

February 18, the Social circle, 1 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. G. Peterson, 1334 Maple avenue.

February 19, the Friendship circle, 8 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. E. Meyer, 605 Ridge avenue, Evanston.

February 25, the Linen circle, 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. P. Kober, 2763 Asbury avenue Evanston.

For School Mothers

The Mothers of St. Joseph's school will hold their regular monthly meeting Friday evening, February 5, at 8 o'clock, in the school hall.

The club is having as guest speaker, Miss Margaret Hayes, 1117 Church street, Evanston, who is a former principal of Stolp school and a past president of the Evanston Catholic Woman's club. She will review the recent Catholic publications, a program "which promises to be most interesting. We hope to have all the mothers of our school present to hear Miss Hayes," the club announces.

Mr. and Mrs. Weston E. Davie of 740 Maclean avenue, Kenilworth, entertained a group of friends for cocktails before the dance at the Kenilworth club Friday evening.

Donate Proceeds of Card Party to the Red Cross

The Evanston and North Shore Alumnae chapter of Delta Gamma donated one-half of the proceeds from the card party which followed the luncheon Monday at the home of Mrs. E. Royce Armstrong in Evanston to the Red Cross for flood relief. Mrs. Armstrong was out of town, but the members of the chapter were her guests for luncheon. Mrs. J. E. McFadden of Evanston, the new social chairman, was assisted with the arrangements for the card party by Mrs. Abner Webster, Mrs. Robert Woodcock, and Mrs. Max Landphere, all of Evanston.

Book Review Series

Mrs. John Beuttas is opening her home at 533 Maple avenue Tuesday morning, February 16, at 10 o'clock to those who wish to attend the book review that Mrs. Carl Johnsen of Winnetka will give under the auspices of the Wilmette center of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago. This is the first of the second series of book reviews to be sponsored by the Wilmette center.

Entertain After Play

Following the performance of the faculty play, "The Rivals," at New Trier High school, Saturday evening, Superintendent Matthew P. Gaffney and Mrs. Gaffney entertained the members of the cast, the committees, and other members of the Faculty Drama club at their home, 525 Ash street, Winnetka.

Study Horticulture

The horticultural department of the Kenilworth Garden club will meet Wednesday, February 10, at the home of Mrs. James Ralph Starr, 320 Raleigh road, Kenilworth. The program for the meeting will be announced at a later date.

Stephen A. Williams, Jr., 1352 Chestnut avenue, is spending a month in Miami, Fla., with relatives and is enjoying a great deal of golf playing.

Alumni to Commemorate Founding of U. of W.

Invitations are being extended to all the University of Wisconsin men and women living on the north shore for a party to be held in the Wilmette Woman's club Saturday evening, February 6, at 8:30 o'clock, in commemoration of the founding of the University of Wisconsin.

This meeting will be entertained by a coast to coast broadcast over the Blue network of the NBC in which several prominent alumni will be heard, the band and glee club, Don Ameche of Hollywood, and William E. Drips of Chicago. Dancing and refreshments will follow the broadcast.

Those planning to attend are to notify C. A. Keller of 820 Greenwood avenue, Wilmette.

William H. Smythe, Jr., of 43 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth, came home from Purdue university Friday to spend the week-end with his family.

Prints

TO WEAR RIGHT NOW UNDER YOUR FUR COAT

Blums colorful prints add beauty and gaiety to your somber, winter costumes. We have a wide assortment of colors and sizes to harmonize with every coat. From 19.75 . . . The dress illustrated is $45.

Blums-Vogue
709 CHURCH STREET • EVANSTON