

Stevens of Evanston
★ The Shopping Center of
Fashion-wise Women

The new bowler is slated for a huge success. It's so very jaunty, so very youthful for your tailored suit and all your sport clothes. It comes, too, in glorious new spring colors. And there's a little off-the-face hat (not illustrated) that is its boon companion, each at $3.95

Sweaters are an integral part of your suit costume and here is a prize—knit of gorgeously soft Llamora wool, it won't sag or stretch, and it'll wash with ease. You'll want to choose several (crew or boat neck). Many grand spring colors.

$3.95

Linen Blouses, tailored to perfection give your suit a fine air. They're made of a very nice quality linen that will launder beautifully and they come in stunning pastel and dark colors. The blouse illustrated has a tucked bosom and a simple little collar—then there's one with a tiny round collar and one with latticed shoulders.

$1.95

$10.95

for tailored chic in the

Moderate Price Shop

Stunning suits — suits that you'll wear in February under your coat and that will be the mainstay of your wardrobe all Spring long. It is with justifiable pride that the Moderate Price Shop presents these suits — they're distinguished for their quality fabrics, for the line of their cut, and for their tailoring — and all that at such a very small price.

Above, men's wear fabrics tailored with precision by men who know the importance of careful workmanship—single breasted, double breasted, plain back and action backs in brown and grays and navy,
$10.95

Left, gay bright colors in fine shetland wool and fashioned in swank sporting styles with novel pockets and buttons, with dash and chic—if you want a suit just a bit different and tremendously smart, here it is,
$10.95

EDGAR A. STEVENS, Inc.

1624 Orrington Ave. Evanston