

Activities in Social Circles

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Are Patrons for Debut Recital of Artist Student

The debut recital of Bertha Ostrar, brilliant young artist student of Walter Knupfer of Wilmette, February 7, at Kimball hall will have on its list of patrons and patronesses a group of north shore and Chicago people.

Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Bartholomay, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Biggert, Mr. and Mrs. Morton Cahn, Mr. and Mrs. John Joseph Galery, Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Jay McKinley Garner, and Mrs. Robert H. Ripley, of Winnetka; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Crouse, of Glencoe; Mr. and Mrs. George Packard and Dr. and Mrs. William H. Barnes of Evanston, and Mrs. Jacob Baur, Mr. and Mrs. John Alden Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Eitel, the Very Rev. Michael F. O'Connell, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Swift of Chicago.

Miss Ostrar's program will contain as the "pièce de resistance" the B minor sonata by Liszt. Recently she has made two public appearances. January 24, as one of the three winners of the contest sponsored by the Illinois Symphony orchestra, she played with that organization the Sostakovitz concerto. February 3, she performed the Rachmaninoff concerto in C minor with the DePaul Symphony orchestra at the Goodman theatre.

Review of Novels Last in Junior School Series

The sixth and last of the series of book review programs given by Eleanor Ellis Perkins under auspices of the Evanston Friends of Chicago Junior school takes place Wednesday morning, February 10, at the home of Mrs. Harley L. Clark, 2603 Sheridan road, Evanston.

Miss Perkins has taken for her subject, "Novels" which she will illustrate by comments upon two books: "Invasion," by Van der Mersch, who last year took the Prix Goncourt, and "Young Joseph" and "Joseph, His Brother," the two-volume novel by Thomas Mann, winner of the Nobel prize about five years ago.

Luncheon for Daughter

Mrs. John Boylston, 1302 Chestnut avenue, gave a luncheon at Shawnee Country club on Wednesday in honor of her daughter, Mrs. John B. Farrior of Annapolis, Md., who is visiting here for several weeks.

Hostess to Committee

Miss Helen Beach, 1114 Ashland avenue, is entertaining the members of the gift booth committee of the Better Homes exposition at her home on Wednesday, February 10, at 2 o'clock.

Plans Club Exhibits

Exhibits of the Woman's Club of Wilmette in its annual Better Homes exposition February 23, 24, and 25, at the clubhouse, are under the general direction of Mrs. Edward C. Lingel of 412 Tenth street. The public is invited to the exhibit with its many features.

Kaskaskia D. A. R. May Take Guests to Meeting

The next meeting and program for Kaskaskia chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be held Tuesday, February 9, at 12 o'clock. Members may bring guests to the luncheon at the Georgian hotel in Evanston, and the program following, a talk "Boys Brotherhood Republic," by Jack Robbins.

Members, too, are asked to bring yarn or three-yard lengths of denim, khaki, and shirting material, for Ellis Island.

The day is in charge of the Americanization committee chairman, Mrs. George T. Jordan. Assisting hostesses are Mrs. W. Stanley Barham, Mrs. George F. Barry, Mrs. Walter Johnson, Mrs. John Bland Townes, and Mrs. Horace Bingham.

Miss Florence Sargent, 2440 Lake View avenue, is to be notified by the Sunday evening previous to the meeting, the chapter announces. Mrs. Frank Wright is its regent, Miss Mary Harts its corresponding secretary.

Hostesses to Ex-Regents

Mrs. Frederick C. Minkler, Mrs. Francis Graham, and Mrs. Gair Tournellot will be the hostesses and will entertain the Ex-Regents club of the Fourth division, D. A. R., Friday, February 5, at the home of Mrs. Minkler, 1143 Forest avenue, Evanston. A short business meeting and luncheon at 12:30 o'clock and an exhibition of the needlework of the women of Mrs. Minkler's family for the past 125 years will constitute plans for the day.

Will Make Official Call Upon Alpha Phi Alumnae

Wednesday, February 10, at 1 o'clock, the North Shore Alumnae association of Alpha Phi is meeting at the home of Mrs. Robert Wooden, 389 Elder lane, Winnetka. Mrs. Ralph Strader of Evanston, district governor, will make her official call upon the chapter at this time, telling of other chapters and their activities, and making suggestions for future activity for the North Shore alumnae group. The hostess in charge of luncheon is Mrs. William Yonkers. Assisting her are Mrs. John Northway, Mrs. Donald Oakland, Mrs. Edward Miles, and Miss Betty Thompson.

On Trip East

Carlos Photo

Miss Betty Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Williams of 1352 Chestnut avenue, left on Tuesday for Hanover, N. H., to attend the Dartmouth College carnival to be held at the college Friday and Saturday. Before going to Hanover she spent several days in New York with friends. Betty is a student at Northwestern university and a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

Visitor Is Guest of Honor at Three Parties

Mrs. Albert H. Pendleton of 1234 Glendenning road is entertaining at luncheon tomorrow (Friday) in honor of Mrs. Charles Bissell of Suffield, Conn., who departs Sunday after a fortnight's visit with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy E. Hall of 1226 Glendenning road. Tuesday Mrs. Bissell was guest of honor at the luncheon and bridge party that Mrs. Weston Davie of 740 Maclean avenue, Kenilworth, gave at Exmoor Country club, and Sunday Mr. and Mrs. William A. Patterson gave a supper party in their home at 162 Abingdon avenue, Kenilworth for her.

D. A. R. Members to Give Program at Guest Day Tea

The members of the Skokie Valley chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, are giving the program at the meeting and guest tea Monday, February 8, at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. George T. Leach and Mrs. Wilfred A. Nabors of 1456 Ridge avenue, Evanston.

The members have been asked to "bring something, wear something, tell something, or do something," that will recall Colonial, revolutionary, or pioneer times.

Members' day programs are popular ones in the chapter. Last February, the members' day program was a play dealing with Revolutionary days written by Mrs. C. S. Jackson, in which the three members taking part each acted the role of an ancestor of that time.

Election of delegates to the State conference at Galesburg and to the National congress in Washington, D. C., will take place at this next meeting.

Mrs. George E. Shipman, the regent of the chapter, will appoint the nominating committee.

Book Club Hostess

Miss Frances Cutler, 1001 Lake avenue, entertained the members of her book club at luncheon and a reading at her home, Wednesday afternoon of this week.

D. A. R. Chairman

As chairman of ways and means, Mrs. Sherman B. Orwig of Wilmette is in charge of a benefit program Fort Dearborn chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, is giving Monday afternoon, February 8, at the Frederick C. Minkler home in Evanston for Tamasee school.