Skokie Choral Organizations Will Give Program Friday, February 12

North Shore Children Head Junior Cabinet at Demonstration School

In contrast to the trend toward unicameral houses in state government, the students of the Demonstration school of the National College of Education have just established a Junior Cabinet, to supplement the work of the Senior Cabinet.

Hubert Fox, 1054 Bluff road, Glencoe, a fourth grader, has been elected chairman of the cabinet. There are two delegates from each of the four lower grades, Martha Barber, 159 Lake avenue, Glencoe, being the other fourth grade delegate.

Representatives of the third grade are Martha Reichert, 1650 Chase avenue, Chicago, and John Manuel Galvarro, 1319 Estes avenue, Chicago. Second grade delegates are Nancy Bills, 805 Ridge terrace, and Alvin Gatheny, 1255 Chancellor street, both of Evanston. First graders are Nessa Parket, 7058 Greenvue avenue, and Keith Willcox, 1830 Morse avenue, both of Chicago.

The Senior Cabinet elected James Bersbach, 1910 Orrington avenue, Evanston, an eighth grader, as president and Geraldine Bovbjerg, 1031 South Euclid avenue, Oak Park, seventh grader, as secretary. Eunice Marie Woldhausen, 5717 N. Washtenaw avenue, and John Reichert, 1650 Chase avenue, both of Chicago, are the other delegates from the eighth and seventh grades, respectively.

Jean Kix Miller, 789 Michigan avenue, and William Hefferan III, 519 Lake avenue, both of Wilmette, represent the sixth grade. Jo Waldo Salomon, 1126 Morse avenue, and Rutha Jean Smith, 1437 Howard street, both of Chicago, are fifth grade delegates.

The two cabinets dictate the extra curricular activities of the school. They handle disciplinary problems, determine what shall be done for the various special events such as Valentine's day, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter and Hallowe'en, and arrange for programs at the assemblies.

At present the junior cabinet is sponsoring a newspaper. The senior cabinet plans to issue a magazine soon.

OPENS LECTURE-RECITALS

Concert to Be Directed by Lawrence Yingling, Teacher

The seventh annual winter concert to be presented by the choral organization of Skokie school Winnetka, will be held in Jane Kuppenheimer Memorial hall at 8:15 o'clock Friday evening, February 12. The concert will be under the direction of Lawrence Yingling, conductor, with Marjorie Beach as accompanist.

Three hundred children, over half of the school, will present selections from six masters. The music dates from 1600 to the present and includes carols and the sacred music of William Byrd, songs from the operas and cantatas of Handel, samples of three kinds of writing by Purcell, four beautiful songs of the incomparable Schubert, and motets and chorales by Brahms. The latter will be sung by an a cappella chorus of 175 girls. The numbers range from the model subtlety of Byrd to the forceful dissonant declarations of Holst, from the old to the new, and from the familiar to the more modern.

The technique of the choruses has been improved again this year, and they offer a program probably unequalled in its standard of musical ambition. The intonations, and the light and free resonant tone quality of the 75 voices in the boys' choir, singing such songs as "Who Is Sylvia?" are unusually fine.

Heard First Time

Several of the selections will be heard for the first time on the north shore.

Incidental additions to the accompaniments of Marjorie Beach will be made by Donald Alvin on the double bass. Marjorie Beach is only thirteen years old, and the task undertaken by her is typical of the accomplishments of this young group of musicians.

The proceeds of the concert will be used to defray in part the expenses of the music department at Skokie school.

February 5, at 10:15 o'clock will include fifteenth century music in Italy and England. It is this music which lays the foundation patterns for modern music, and was written for dance and for choral work. The series has been planned to meet the needs of the adult music lover who would like to have a more complete background for the appreciation of the classics. It begins with music from the year 1400 and covers its development up to the time of Schubert.
