

Questions That Are Asked About Banking

Do Banks Want to Make Loans Now?

The answer to this question is emphatically, "Yes!" . . . Banks, generally, are making loans every day — and would like to make more of them. In the first place, banks have funds to loan — for restored public confidence has greatly increased bank deposits. Secondly, loans are a chief source of a bank's profits. No bank knowingly refuses to make a good loan for the same reason that a merchant does not lose a good sale if he can help it.

Bank loans are made when the bank is satisfied the loan will be repaid when due.

This bank is willing to loan its funds to business concerns and individuals whose qualifications give adequate protection for our depositors' money entrusted to our care.
