Chester Persing Named Military Academy Head

The ever welcome Holy Week cantata by Dubois, "The Seven Last Words," will be sung on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock by the choir of St. John's Lutheran church at Wilmette and Park avenues. Lolita Bertling (above), whose beautiful voice has become known far beyond the north shore area, will be the soprano soloist.

Other solo and duet parts will be sung by Marie Simons, Arthur Green, and Dr. Martin H. Seifert. The organist and choir director is Electa Austin Gamron, member of the Northwestern University Music faculty.

The singing of the cantata will be preceded by the reading of that portion of the passion history which contains the seven last words of Christ on the cross. These words will be read by the pastor of the church, the Rev. J. H. Gockel.

All lovers of good church music are invited to attend this sacred concert.

LET A DOCTOR ADVISE YOU

By D. S. LYMAN
of Lyman's Pharmacy

Too many people go about the daily business of living, feeling that life is a burden. There is no particular reason for this depression, just a general let down and lowness of spirit. One dreads the morning and the beginning of another weary day.

This is the time to visit a doctor. Other people may smile at your dragging spirits, but wise doctor knows better. He recognizes a serious symptom.

Often it is not particularly serious. One needs a boost, a tonic, a lift over a bad spot. If the doctor recognizes that you are seriously affected he will tell you what to do, and how to live to combat the difficulty.

If it is only a tonic you need, the capable doctor will prescribe that, too. He can give you back the joy in living that you had as a child.

If medicine is needed, use care in the selection of a druggist to fill the prescription the doctor will write.

This is the first of a series of Editorial Advertisements appearing in this paper each week.
