Iowa Teacher Is Injured as Automobile Hits Tree

Friday evening at about 10 o'clock, Miss Shirley Reay, a school teacher from Davenport, Iowa, on her way to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Burnside, 2111 Beechwood avenue, ran off the pavement at the curve on Ridge road just south of Wilmette avenue, and crashed into a tree. She was taken from the car by a passing motorist, and the police notified. She was later taken to the Evanston hospital in the police ambulance, and found to have sustained serious injuries, a 4-inch wound on the forehead, another on the nose, and complained of severe pains in the legs. Mr. and Mrs. Burnside were notified and went immediately to the hospital to look after her.

President Kinne, Chief McGuire, Back From East

Village President Harry C. Kinne and Mrs. Kinne, and Police Chief Cloyd C. McGuire and Mrs. McGuire, attended the banquet at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel, New York City, Monday evening, at which the National Safety council presented awards to the winners in the 1936 safety contest, in which Wilmette was first in class 6, towns of 10,000 to 25,000 population. President and Mrs. Kinne returned Tuesday by airplane, bringing the handsome plaque symbolizing the victory. Chief and Mrs. McGuire returned by train.
