

INTERPRETS WAGNERIAN ROLES

Julius Huehn, baritone, who made his debut with the Metropolitan Opera company last season, and has since been singing some of the leading baritone roles in Wagnerian operas, will be one of the four Bach night soloists at the Northwestern University Music Festival May 13, singing with Jeannette Vreeland, Kathryn Meisle, and William Miller, and the Chicago Symphony.

Season subscription tickets are now being sold throughout the north shore with active committees campaigning in each of the villages.

Mrs. Harvey A. Bush, Mrs. Herbert B. Mulford, and Mrs. Frank J. Scheidhelm are co-chairmen of the Wilmette committee; Mrs. Thomas Roswell Coyne is chairman of the Kenilworth group; Mrs. Walter A. Strong and Mrs. Ernst von Ammon are co-chairmen in Winnetka, with Mrs. Edward B. Hall, general chairman, and Mrs. Elmer F. Wieboldt as acting chairman in Glencoe.

Eleanor Idler Receives Master of Arts Degree

Miss Eleanor Idler, 932 Ashland avenue, Wilmette, was awarded the degree of Master of Arts by the University of Chicago at its 187th convocation exercises last week. President Robert M. Hutchins conferred diplomas upon 251 candidates in the ceremony, held in the University chapel. Miss Idler, who received her bachelor's degree from Rockford college in 1933, submitted a thesis entitled "Development of Infant Welfare Work in Chicago." It was accepted by the School of Social Service Administration.

Plan Dinner Dance at Illinois Country Club

An Easter formal dinner dance will be the initial spring activity at the Illinois Country club on Dundee road. The event is scheduled for Saturday, March 27. Exceptionally fine music has been secured for this occasion, it is explained, and there will be special entertainment.

VACATIONER

Lord's Studio

Miss Maryon Rogerson, who earned her senior life saving emblem last summer under the tutelage of Coach George Eckert at the Shawnee Country club pool, returned to the north shore this week on her spring vacation from Monticello college where she is majoring in the modern dance and music.

Miss Rogerson was one of the girls chosen in Monticello's Exposition of the Modern Dance given last semester at the University of Illinois.

Invite Golfers to French Lick Event

North shore golfers, together with scores of others in the Midwest area will make their annual early spring hegira to French Lick Springs, Indiana, to compete in the annual Midwest Amateur championships April 2, 3 and 4.

This annual event, held under the direction of Ernie Heitkamp of the Midwest Golfer and Sports Review, promises to attract the largest group of amateurs from the Chicago district that has ever participated in this three-day spring holiday tournament.

For six years this tournament has been a popular event for golfers through this section of the country. Handicaps are so arranged that every player, regardless of the quality of his game, will have a chance at the numerous awards. The event is conducted under the rules of the Western Golf association.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Bageman and daughter, Barbara, 322 Washington avenue, left Tuesday on a three months' vacation in San Francisco, Calif.

VOICE CULTURE

Is your child a monotone? Not necessarily. Ear training specialized, Speech or song diction, Radio technique. Audition arranged. Special rates for morning lessons. Evening appointments. Free examination. Winnetka 2618.

FAY PALMER KREER

edwin g. martin

614 church street

evanston

greenleaf 4124

● interiors

● furniture antiques draperies carpeting wall papers refinishing upholstering slip covers accessories

10.00

Spring's version of you in these enticing bits of millinery . . .

They're gay, they're mad, they're merry—but you must try them to see for yourself. The crowns have descended to lower levels, there's a new slant to the brims, and Vogue says veils will enmesh the smartest women.

colony hat shop

1640 orrington ave., evanston