

Ruth Coale Is Made President of Delta Gamma

Miss Ruth Coale of Winnetka was installed Monday as president of the Northwestern university chapter of Delta Gamma sorority. Miss Coale, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Coale and a junior at the university, has been interested in various activities and has received other honors in addition to this latest recognition from Delta Gamma.

She was elected to membership in two other sororities, Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary group, and the Alethenai, literary organization. Miss Coale was a member of the sophomore commission last year, was co-chairman of the Dad's Day invitation committee and a member of the Homecoming publicity and Post-prom committees last semester.

Miss Jean Mitchell of Wilmette, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Mitchell, will serve as social chairman of Delta Gamma during the coming year. She was chosen one of the Syllabus beauty queens last year when she was a sophomore.

Other officers are: Miss Margaret Sellman of Pittsburgh, vice-president; Miss Alice Burry of Fort Wayne, recording secretary; Miss Caroline Pope of Evanston, corresponding secretary; Miss Nona Benninghoven of Chicago, treasurer, and Miss Maud Eichman of Evanston, rushing chairman.

Eastern Star Activity

Mrs. Hallie B. Smoot, 901 Central avenue, Wilmette, will be hostess Thursday, March 18, to the members of Wilmette chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, who are sewing for the Country Fair. The meeting is at 10 o'clock in the morning. Mrs. Harriet M. Hosken is chairman for the sewing. Members are asked to bring sandwiches. Dessert and coffee will be furnished by the hostess.

Monday, March 15, was Friend's night at Wilmette Chapter. Mrs. Mabel Moore, matron, and Archie Weir, patron, of Lincolnwood chapter, Evanston, officiated. Mrs. Lillian Swanson, matron of Campbell chapter, Highland Park, was the guest of honor. The various stations were filled by friends of our officers. Mrs. Lena H. Pennington, a member of Queen Esther chapter and 22 members of the chapter, were our guests as well as 20 members from Lincolnwood chapter and members from a dozen other chapters.

Mrs. Ackermann was pleased to have three petitions for membership balloted on favorably. Mrs. Evangie Lee Morgan, who had charge of the program, announced that William G. Morgan would favor us with several musical selections, to be followed by a travelogue to Sweden and Holland by Mrs. Martha B. Yarian, and readings by Mrs. Morgan.

Mrs. Eva G. Pyfer arranged a birthday table for members whose birthdays occur in January, February, and March, and Mrs. Gertrude Morgan, our marshal, furnished the beautiful birthday cake. Mrs. Minnie L. Kuelzow decorated the guests' tables with St. Patrick's colors and favors.

Our next meeting, April 5, will be Past Officers night.—M.W.J.
