

ciated Guilds will be held tomorrow (Friday, April 9) in the Parish House. The women will meet for work at 10 a. m., followed by luncheon at 12:30.

The North Shore Teachers Fellowship conferences are held every Monday evening at Christ church Parish House, 460 Maple avenue, Winnetka. These conferences began March 8, and will continue until May 3. There is a fellowship and dinner hour at 6, lasting until 7:15, followed by a service of worship at 7:30. From 8 to 8:50 there is held an Assembly class, and from 8:55 to 9:45 there will be group conferences. The rector and several of our St. Augustine's Church school teachers have attended these meetings, and derived great benefit from them.

First Presbyterian

Ninth street at Greenleaf avenue
James T. Veneklasen, minister

The sermon by the minister at the 11 o'clock worship service will be on the theme, "The Total Abstinence." This will be a protest, and a challenge, suggested by the life of an ancient young man of exceptional interest. Young people especially are invited.

The musical program for the service will be: prelude, "Nocturne" (E minor) Chopin; anthem, "O God, Thou Art My God," Wathall; solo, "Come, Ye Blessed," Scott, Edward Otis; postlude, "March in B flat," Faulkes. Miss Erma Rounds is director.

Junior church will care for the children while their parents attend church services.

Our Sunday school meets at 9:30 o'clock in all departments under the general superintendency of Lincoln C. Torrey.

The Adult Bible class will meet for study at 1 o'clock. The theme will be: "The Prophet Portrait." We invite you to join us.

The Tuxis club will meet at 5:30 o'clock. There will be election of officers for the new church year. Charles Moon will lead the discussion of the topic, "Why Abstain From Alcohol." All the young people are invited.

The Woman's society will hold its regular meeting Tuesday. The newly elected officers will be installed by the pastor. Sewing begins at 10 o'clock, luncheon is served at 12 o'clock. Miss Minnie Rumsey of the Chicago Presbyterian society will speak on "Missionary Motives." All the women of the church and their friends are cordially invited.

Our midweek services will be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The pastor will lead in a devotional and study hour, to which we cordially invite you.

The Boy Scouts meet Monday evening at the church.

The Girl Scouts meet Wednesday evening at the church.

The choir will rehearse Friday evening at the church.
Erie Neighborhood House will present a play, "For He Had Great Possessions," at the First Presbyterian church of Evanston on Friday evening, April 16. Tickets will be 35 cents. All are cordially invited. The proceeds will be used for the operating expenses of Erie.

Mental Hygiene Lecture to Be Given at College

Mrs. Ruth McCarn, education director of the Illinois Society for Mental Hygiene, will speak on "Mental Health as Measured by Emotional Maturity" at the National College of Education, Wednesday evening, April 14, in the third of the society's series on "Basic Concepts in Behavior." A leader in the field of parent education, Mrs. McCarn came to Chicago after several years of high school teaching in Minnesota. She has been director of the educational program for the Illinois Society for Mental Hygiene for the past three and a half years, speaking to parents, nurses, college students, relief clients, church groups, camp directors and factory girls on positive aspects of mental health.

R. B. Whitaker Will Speak at Realtors' Convention

R. B. Whitaker, president of the R. B. Whitaker company of Winnetka and of Kenosha, will make the keynote address at the National Association of Real Estate boards national convention to be held in Omaha on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Mr. Whitaker, who was chairman of the brokers' division last year, is a vice president of the National Association this year, heading the North Central region.

John A. Dixon and Ralph Kraetsch of the Whitaker organization will accompany Mr. Whitaker to Omaha.

IS CRITICALLY ILL

John S. Reid, whose home for some time has been Fort Lauderdale, Fla., was brought to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Edward Maston, 223 Seventeenth street, Tuesday of last week, critically ill. He was taken immediately to the Ravenswood hospital, Chicago, where is now a patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Gonser, 904 Chestnut avenue, who have recently been vacationing at Hot Springs Ark., returned to Wilmette Sunday night. Mrs. Gonser was away for three weeks and was joined for ten days by Mr. Gonser.
