THE CANDID CAMERA

This picture took first place in the candid camera contest, sponsored among the undergraduates of New Trier Township High school by the student Lens club of the school, and which was just concluded.

AWAY FOR VACATIONS

Miss Julia Booz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norton A. Booz, 919 Forest avenue, is going to Grinnell college during her spring vacation from New Trier High school next week to visit friends there and to inspect the college. Her sister, Miss Annamaria Booz, a student at Mount Holyoke college, did not come home for her spring holiday this year, but instead visited friends in New York and Scranton, Pa.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" will be the subject at the services in First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Wilmette Sunday morning, April 11, held at 11 o'clock in the edifice at 1003 Central avenue. Sunday school convenes at 9:45 o'clock.

The photograph was snapped by Breddin Burns, 461 Hill road, Winnetka, at the recent Girls' club bazaar. Other prize winners were Dick Roth, Bette Ellis, Andy Huby, Walter Lowneburg, and Clarence Lineberger. Arnold Bridges, 811 Lincoln street, Evanston, is the faculty sponsor of the club.

Local Students Are Given Honor Listing on M.I.T. Dean Roll

Names of north shore students whose high records during the last school term gave them a place of honor on the dean's list at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology were announced this week by the school.

Phelps Asbury Walker of Winnetka, was listed as one of the students in the uppermost three per cent of the class. He is a member of the class of 1940 and prepared at Pelham, N. Y. High school, Evanston Township High school, and Kemper Military academy.

Perry Orson Crawford of Winnetka, a second year student, who prepared at New Trier Township High school, was given honor listing again this year.

Lester Kornblith, Jr., a graduate of New Trier Township High school, and a junior at the institute, was another listed in the honor group. He, too, is a resident of Winnetka.

Edward Arthur Brittenham, Jr., of Glencoe, who prepared at the Athenaeum de St. Giles in Belgium and at The Principia, is a fourth year student who ranked in the honor classification.

Alpha Gamma Delta Hold Reunion Apr. 17

Alpha Gamma Delta members from northern Illinois will meet at the panhellenic sorority's second annual International Reunion on April 17 at the Woman's City club, 72 E. 11th street, Chicago. The Chicagoland Reunion will be one of the forty-three alumnae reunions to be held simultaneously in various cities throughout the United States and Canada.

Nineteen Illinois members of Alpha Gamma Delta will be honored at a "Who's Who" luncheon at the reunion for outstanding work in various fields. Helen Burt, Chicago Civic Opera star, Gladys Bezazian, well known interpretive dancer, and Dr. Thelma Mancinelli, 1010 Sheridan road, Wilmette, will be among those receiving recognition from the sorority.

Reunion activities will consist of registration of delegates, luncheon, round-table discussion, initiation of undergraduate pledges from Lambda chapter at Northwestern and two other college chapters, entertainment and a buffet supper.

The Chicago Club of Alpha Gamma Delta is sponsoring the reunion in this territory. Mrs. Knowles Hollowell, Evanston, is chairman of the hostesses; Mrs. William Gutsell, Evanston, and Miss Marion Rockafellow, 405 Prairie avenue, Wilmette, are also heads of committees.

Besides Chicago club members, alumnae groups from Rockford, Peoria, Bloomington, DeKalb, Elgin, Joliet, Aurora, and Springfield will attend.

WINS HONORS

Paul T. Gilbert, Jr., of Kenilworth, has just won the Wisconsin Alumni Research fellowship at the University of Wisconsin for another year. He returns to Kenilworth next week to spend his spring vacation with his family. His brother, Peter, a student at Northwestern, has just been notified he is slated to work for the Honor degree at Northwestern university.

Laury Bottohof of 156 Abingdon road, Kenilworth, is home from Princeton university for his spring vacation. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bottohof, had gone to New York on a business trip, and they all came back together last Friday.
