

Weddings + Engagements + Notices

By JEAN TEN BROECK

Bride Wears Lawn Wedding Gown of Her Grandmother

Wearing the shirred white lawn and net dress of her grandmother, and attended by a group of lace-gowned bridesmaids, Miss Eleanor Coit of Winnetka became the bride of George Lill, II, of Kenilworth, in a ceremony performed Saturday afternoon at the Fourth Presbyterian church of Chicago. Dr. John Timothy Stone, who read the service, had officiated, a generation ago, at the wedding of the bride's mother and late father, Eleanor Babcock and A. Merrill Coit.

The wedding dress, trimmed down the front with a series of white satin bows, had tight, elbow length sleeves, finished with a ruching, as was the neckline of the gown. The bride's veil of French silk net, which had been her mother's, was held to her head with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was made of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley.

Miss Elizabeth Coit, the maid of honor, wore a stiffened lace gown in a soft blue shade, and carried a bouquet of yellow freesia. The bride's other attendants wore lemon yellow and carried blue larkspur and yellow daisies. All the attendants had crownless hats of leghorn, with blue bows in the front. The bridesmaids were another sister, Miss Celia Coit, the bride's stepsister, Miss Charlotte Chandler, Miss Anne Murray of New York, Miss Marjorie Street of Winnetka, and Miss Willette Drummond and Miss Jeannette Schreiner, of Chicago.

Frank Hardinge of Chicago was Mr. Lill's best man, and the ushers were Amos Allen, Church Brownell, John Goodwillie, Sherman Johnson, Robert Ryan, and Ralph Swanson, of Chicago.

Following the wedding reception, held in Winnetka at the home of the bride's mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Buckingham Chandler, 9 Indian Hill road, Mr. Lill and his bride left for Honolulu. Upon their return June 1, they will spend part of the summer at Mrs. Chandler's summer home at Green Lake, Wis., and part with Mr. Lill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Lill of Kenilworth, at their Eagle River home, taking an apartment in Chicago early in the fall.

Miss Elizabeth Coit returned Monday to the University of Chicago and Miss Celia went back to Vassar the same day. Miss Murray remained in Winnetka until Wednesday, visiting Mrs. Chandler. Miss Charlotte Chandler left Sunday for New Orleans, to visit her mother, Mrs. Frank Brostrom, and will later resume her studies in dancing, in New York.

Mrs. William S. Ardery of Washington is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Weedon of 204 Fifth street.

Bride Is Wed in Heirloom Gown and Veil

Her mother's French silk net bridal veil and her grandmother's wedding dress of shirred white lawn and net were worn by Miss Eleanor Coit, the daughter of Mrs. Buckingham Chandler of 9 Indian Hill road, Winnetka, for her marriage to George Lill, II, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Lill of Kenilworth, last Saturday. The ceremony was performed at the Fourth Presbyterian church of Chicago and was followed by a reception at the Chandler residence. Mr. Lill and his bride are honeymooning in Honolulu.

Town House Studios

Tour of Year Close at Hand for Juniors

"Watts! Watts! Watts!" and that's not all the Juniors will hear about at the Chicago Lighting institute Thursday evening, April 15.

"To begin the evening right, we're going to gather in the Jungle room at Fred Harvey's in the Union station for dinner at 6:30.

"Then to the institute where there'll be a demonstration of spectacular lighting which is guaranteed to interest everyone, a talk on the important influence of lighting on interior decoration, and then a tour through the institute's completely furnished bungalow where among other things we will see such interesting effects as lighted bookshelves and artificial sunlight streaming through Venetian blinds.

"Guests are cordially invited.

"Reservations for dinner may be made any time up to Monday evening, April 12, by calling Alma Muehlberg of 1135 Oakwood avenue, or Bettie Buckett of 1010 Main street, Evanston."—A. R.

Hazel Koll to Marry Arthur J. Moss, May 1

Miss Hazel Edna Koll, daughter of Mrs. Henry J. Koll, 1412 Elmwood avenue, has selected Saturday, May 1, as the date for her marriage to Arthur Jackson Moss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moss of Chicago. The wedding will take place at the Wilmette Parish Methodist Episcopal church at 8:30 o'clock in the evening with the Rev. Amos Thornburg performing the ceremony. Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the church.

For April Bride

Miss Barbara Crowe of Kenilworth is giving a small dinner party at home Friday in honor of Miss Harriet Leach and Lewis Bell, whose marriage is to take place in the Church of St. Elisabeth in Glencoe, Saturday evening, April 17. Miss Crowe is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Crowe, 234 Raleigh road.

Lolita Bertling, Wm. Zimmermann to Marry, May 1

Dr. and Mrs. Adolpheus E. Bertling, 315 Washington avenue, Wilmette, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Lolita Kathryn, to William Arthur Zimmermann, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmermann of Chicago. Miss Bertling, soprano, has been pursuing work in radio, concert and opera, and following her marriage expects to continue her career.

The wedding will take place Saturday afternoon, May 1, at 3:30 o'clock in the First Congregational church of Wilmette and will be followed by a reception at the Orrington hotel in Evanston.

Because of the serious illness of the bride's mother, the plans for the wedding are being kept as simple as possible. Miss Bertling will have one attendant, Miss Rutheda L. Pretzel of Evanston, and T. R. Napieralski of DesPlaines, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, will be the best man.

Mr. Zimmermann will take his bride on an extended motor trip through the south and the east to New York. Upon their return they will make their home with the bride's parents until the first of October.

Troth Announced

Mathew Francis Photo

The engagement of Miss Jane Margaret Huebner of Evanston to Paul Carpenter Hosking of Wilmette was announced last week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Huebner. Mr. Hosking is the son of the Richard T. Hoskings.

Roger Williams, Jr., of 410 Forest avenue returned Sunday to the Kiski Springs school in Pennsylvania, having spent his spring vacation in Wilmette.